PROSPECTUS

8,000,000 SHARES
GENERAL AMERICAN INVESTORS COMPANY, INC.
5.95% CUMULATIVE PREFERRED STOCK, SERIES B
(LIQUIDATION PREFERENCE $25.00 PER SHARE)

General American Investors Company, Inc. is offering 8,000,000 shares of 5.95% Cumulative Preferred Stock, Series B, par value $1.00 per share (liquidation preference $25.00 per share). The Company is a closed-end diversified management investment company. The Company's principal investment objective is long-term capital appreciation. Lesser emphasis is placed on current income. No assurance can be given, however, that the Company's investment objectives will be achieved.

Dividends on the Series B Preferred Stock offered hereby will be cumulative from September 24, 2003 at the annual rate of 5.95% of the liquidation preference of $25.00 per share and will be payable quarterly on March 24, June 24, September 24 and December 24 in each year, commencing December 24, 2003.

The Series B Preferred Stock may not be issued unless it is rated "Aaa" by Moody's Investors Service, Inc. In order to keep this rating, the composition of the Company's portfolio must reflect the guidelines established by Moody's, and the Company will be required to maintain a minimum discounted asset coverage ratio with respect to the Series B Preferred Stock. See "Description of Rating Agency Guidelines--Rating Agency Guidelines." The Company is also required to maintain the minimum asset coverage required by the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

The Series B Preferred Stock is subject to mandatory redemption in whole or in part by the Company in the event that the Company fails to maintain a quarterly asset coverage of at least 200% as required by the 1940 Act or fails to maintain the discounted asset coverage required by Moody's. Commencing September 24, 2008 and any time thereafter, the Company, at its option, may redeem the Series B Preferred Stock in whole or in part. Prior to September 24, 2008, the Series B Preferred Stock will be redeemable, at the option of the Company, only to the extent necessary for the Company to continue to qualify for tax purposes as a regulated investment company. In the event the Company redeems the Series B Preferred Stock, the redemption will be for cash, at a redemption price equal to $25.00 per share plus accumulated but unpaid dividends (whether

The date of this prospectus is September 17, 2003.

Certain persons participating in the offering of the Series B Preferred Stock may engage in transactions that stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the market price of the Series B Preferred Stock, including the entry of stabilizing bids, syndicate covering transactions or the imposition of penalty bids. See "Underwriting."

This prospectus sets forth important information about the Company you should know before deciding whether to invest in the Series B Preferred Stock. You should read this prospectus carefully and retain it for future reference.

Additional information about the Company, including a Statement of Additional Information, has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission"). PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

This is only a summary. You should review the more detailed information contained in this prospectus and in the Statement of Additional Information.

The Company..... General American Investors Company, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), has been engaged in business as a closed-end diversified management investment company since October 15, 1928. The Company succeeded to a similar business established in 1927. The Company's outstanding common stock, par value $1.00 per share, is listed and traded on the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (the "NYSE") under the symbol "GAM." As of June 30, 2003, the net assets applicable to the Company's common stock were approximately $900,995,376. As of June 30, 2003, the Company had outstanding 29,882,056 shares of common stock and 6,000,000 shares of 7.20% Tax-Advantaged Cumulative Preferred Stock, Series A, par value $1.00 per share (liquidation preference $25.00 per share) (the "Series A Preferred Stock"). Pursuant to the Certificate of Designations, Preferences and Rights (the "Certificate of Designations") relating to the Series A Preferred Stock, the Company may redeem the Series A Preferred Stock on each quarterly dividend payment date on or after June 23, 2003. The Company notified the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock on August 15, 2003 that it will redeem all of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock on September 23, 2003. See "-- Condition to Offering" below.

The Offering..... The Company is offering 8,000,000 shares of 5.95% Cumulative Preferred Stock, Series B, par value $1.00 per share (liquidation preference $25.00 per share) (the "Series B Preferred Stock"), at a purchase price of $25.00 per share.

Investment Objectives and Policies..... The primary objective of the Company is long-term capital appreciation. Lesser emphasis is placed on current income. In seeking to achieve its primary objective, the Company invests principally in common stocks believed by management to have better-than-average growth potential. No assurance can be given, however, that the Company's investment objectives will be achieved. See "Investment Objectives and Policies."

Portfolio..... As of June 30, 2003, the net assets applicable to the Company's common stock were $900,995,376, of which $341,758,920 was unrealized appreciation on investments and securities sold short. See "Portfolio."

Management..... The Board of Directors of the Company has overall management responsibility for the Company. Spencer Davidson, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, manages the Company's portfolio. See "Management -- Portfolio Management" on page 15 of this prospectus and "Management of the Company" in the Statement of Additional Information.

Dividends..... Dividends on the Series B Preferred Stock at the annual rate of 5.95% of the liquidation preference of $25.00 per share, when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors, will be cumulative from September 24, 2003. The dividends will be payable, out of the Company's legally available funds therefor, quarterly in arrears on March 24, June 24, September 24 and December 24 in each year, commencing December 24, 2003 to the holders of record on the preceding March 7, June 7, September 7 and December 7, respectively. See "Description of Series B Preferred Stock -- Dividends."

Rating..... The Company will issue the Series B Preferred Stock only if the shares receive a rating of "Aaa" from Moody's Investors Service, Inc ("Moody's"). A rating of "Aaa" is the highest investment grade rating issued for preferred stock by Moody's. The Certificate of Designations creating and fixing the rights and preferences of the Series B Preferred Stock contains certain provisions that reflect guidelines established by Moody's (the "rating agency guidelines") in order to obtain this rating on September 24, 2003, the date of original issue of the Series B Preferred Stock. See "Description of Rating Agency Guidelines -- Rating Agency Guidelines."

Asset Coverage..... The Company will be required to maintain two different asset maintenance requirements:

- the asset coverage required by the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act"), and
- the discounted asset coverage required by Moody's.

Each asset maintenance requirement is summarized below.

The Company will be required to maintain, as of the last business day of March, June, September and December of each year, an asset coverage of at least 200% with respect to the Series B Preferred Stock, which is the asset coverage required by Section 18 of the 1940 Act. The Company estimates that if it had issued and sold the shares of Series B Preferred Stock offered hereby at the public offering price of $25.00 per share and redeemed all of its outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock as of June 30, 2003, the asset coverage for the Series B Preferred Stock under the 1940 Act would have been approximately 547% (after giving effect to the deduction of the sales load and estimated expenses payable in connection with the offering of approximately $6,800,000). The asset coverage would have been computed as follows: value of the Company's assets less liabilities not constituting senior securities ($1,094,195,376) divided by senior securities representing indebtedness plus the liquidation preference of each class of preferred stock ($200,000,000), expressed as a percentage equals 547%. See "Description of Rating Agency Guidelines -- Asset Maintenance."

Under the rating agency guidelines, the Company will be required to maintain assets having an aggregate discounted value at least equal to the basic maintenance amount, which is the minimum asset coverage specified by Moody's. Moody's has established the discount factors and guidelines for determining the discounted value of the Company's assets in connection with the Company's receipt of a rating of "Aaa" on the Series B Preferred Stock. See "Description of Rating Agency Guidelines -- Rating Agency Guidelines."

The Certificate of Designations for the Series B Preferred Stock, which contains the technical provisions of the various components of the asset coverage tests, has been filed as an exhibit to this registration statement and may be obtained through the Commission's website (<http://www.sec.gov>).

Voting Rights.....

At all times, holders of shares of the Company's preferred stock then outstanding (including the Series B Preferred Stock), voting together as a single class, will elect two members of the Company's Board of Directors, and holders of shares of preferred stock and common stock, voting together as a single class, will elect the remaining directors. However, upon a failure by the Company to pay dividends on any of its preferred stock in an amount equal to two full years' dividends, holders of shares of the preferred stock, voting as a separate class, will have the right to elect the smallest number of directors that would constitute a majority of the directors until cumulative dividends on all shares of preferred stock have been paid or provided for. Holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock and any other preferred stock will vote separately as a class on certain other matters, as required under the Certificate of Designations relating to their series, the 1940 Act and Delaware law. Except as otherwise indicated in this prospectus and as otherwise required by applicable law, holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock will be entitled to one vote per share on each matter submitted to a vote of stockholders and will vote together with holders of shares of common stock and any other preferred stock as a single class. See "Description of Series B Preferred Stock -- Voting Rights."

Mandatory Redemption.....

The Company will be required to redeem the Series B Preferred Stock in the situations discussed below.

The Series B Preferred Stock is subject to mandatory redemption in whole or in part by the Company in the event that the Company fails to maintain the asset coverage requirements in accordance with the rating agency guidelines or the 1940 Act as described above and, in each case, does not cure that failure by the applicable cure date. Any mandatory redemption will be made for cash at a redemption price equal to $25.00 per share plus accumulated and unpaid dividends (whether or not earned or declared) to the redemption date.

In the event that shares are redeemed due to a failure to maintain the quarterly asset coverage, the Company may, but is not required to, redeem a sufficient number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock in order that the asset coverage, as defined in the 1940 Act, of the remaining outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock and any other preferred stock after redemption is up to 225%.

Under the rating agency guidelines, in the event that shares are redeemed due to a failure to maintain weekly a discounted asset coverage at least equal to the basic maintenance amount, the Company may redeem a sufficient number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock in order that the aggregate discounted value of the Company's assets exceeds the basic maintenance amount of the remaining outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock and any other preferred stock by up to 10%.

The Series B Preferred Stock is also subject to mandatory redemption in whole if the Company's Board of Directors and holders of common stock authorize certain transactions. See "Description of Series B Preferred Stock -- Redemption -- Mandatory Redemption" and "Description of Rating Agency Guidelines -- Redemption."

Optional Redemption.....

Subject to the limitations of the 1940 Act and Delaware law, commencing September 24, 2008 and any time thereafter the Company at its option may redeem the Series B Preferred Stock in whole or in part. Prior to September 24, 2008, the Series B Preferred Stock will be redeemable at the option of the Company only to the extent necessary for the Company to continue to qualify for tax purposes as a regulated investment company. Any optional redemption will be made for cash at a price equal to $25.00 per share plus accumulated and unpaid dividends (whether or not earned or declared) to the redemption date. See "Description of Series B Preferred Stock -- Redemption -- Optional Redemption."

Liquidation Preference..... The liquidation preference of each share of Series B Preferred Stock is $25.00. Upon liquidation, holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock will receive the liquidation preference plus an amount equal to all accumulated and unpaid dividends (whether or not earned or declared) to the date of distribution, excluding interest thereon. See "Description of Series B Preferred Stock -- Liquidation Rights."

Use of Proceeds..... The Company will use the net proceeds from the offering of the Series B Preferred Stock to purchase additional portfolio securities in accordance with its investment objectives and policies. See "Use of Proceeds."

Listing..... Prior to this offering, there has been no public market for the Series B Preferred Stock. The Series B Preferred Stock has been approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to notice of official issuance. However, during an initial period which is not expected to exceed 30 days from the date of this prospectus, the Series B Preferred Stock may not be traded on the NYSE.

Risk Factors..... Risk is inherent in all investing. Therefore, before investing in Series B Preferred Stock you should consider the risks carefully. These risks include:

General

- The market price for the Series B Preferred Stock will be influenced by changes in interest rates, the perceived credit quality of the Series B Preferred Stock and other factors.
- The Series B Preferred Stock is not a debt obligation of the Company. The Series B Preferred Stock will be junior in respect of dividends and liquidation preferences to any indebtedness incurred by the Company. Although unlikely, precipitous declines in the value of the Company's assets could result in the Company having insufficient assets to redeem all of the Series B Preferred Stock for the full redemption price.

- The value of the Company's investment portfolio may decline, reducing the asset coverage for the Series B Preferred Stock. Further, if an issuer of a common stock in which the Company invests experiences financial difficulties or if an issuer's preferred stock or debt security is downgraded or defaults or if an issuer in which the Company invests is affected by other adverse market factors, there may be a negative impact on the income and/or asset value of the Company's investment portfolio.
- The Company may not meet the asset coverage requirements or earn sufficient income from its investments to pay dividends on the Series B Preferred Stock.

Rating Agency Risk

- Moody's could downgrade or withdraw the rating assigned to the Series B Preferred Stock, which would likely have an adverse effect on the liquidity and market value of these preferred shares. The present credit rating does not eliminate or mitigate the risks of investing in these preferred shares.

Redemption

- The Company may be required to redeem the Series B Preferred Stock to meet regulatory or rating agency requirements or may voluntarily redeem the Series B Preferred Stock. Subject to these redemptions, the Series B Preferred Stock is perpetual.

Illiquidity Prior to Exchange Listing

- During an initial period which is not expected to exceed 30 days after the date of this prospectus, the Series B Preferred Stock will not be traded on any securities exchange. During this period, it is expected that the underwriters intend to make a market in the Series B Preferred Stock; however, they have no obligation to do so. As a result, an investment in the Series B Preferred Stock may be illiquid during this period.

Foreign Securities

- The Company may invest its assets in foreign securities. Investing in securities of foreign companies and foreign governments, which generally are denominated in foreign currencies, may involve certain risk and opportunity considerations not typically associated with investing in domestic companies and could cause the Company to be affected favorably or unfavorably by changes in currency exchange rates and revaluations of currencies.

Dependence on Key Personnel

- The Company is dependent upon the expertise of Mr. Spencer Davidson in providing portfolio management services with respect to the Company's investments. If the Company were to lose the services of Mr. Davidson, its investment decisions could be adversely affected to the extent the Company could not appoint a successor in a timely manner. The Company cannot assure you that it will find a suitable replacement for Mr. Davidson in a timely manner in the event of his death, resignation, retirement or inability to act on behalf of the Company.

Condition to Offering.....

Under the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, it is authorized to issue up to 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock in one or more series from time to time. As of the date of this prospectus, 6,000,000 shares of the Company's Series A Preferred Stock were issued and outstanding. Pursuant to the Certificate of Designations relating to the Series A Preferred Stock, upon redemption, the shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be canceled and shall revert to authorized but unissued shares of preferred stock undesignated as to series. Accordingly, the Series B Preferred Stock offered hereby may not be validly issued until a sufficient number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock outstanding have been redeemed. Pursuant to the Certificate of Designations, the Company notified the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock on August 15, 2003 that it will redeem all of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock on September 23, 2003 for an aggregate redemption price equal to approximately $150,000,000. All of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock must be redeemed before any shares of the Series B Preferred Stock offered hereby may be issued.

Federal Income Tax

Considerations.....

The Company has qualified, and intends to remain qualified, for federal income tax purposes, as a regulated investment company. Qualification requires, among other things, compliance by the Company with certain distribution requirements. Limitations on distributions, which could be imposed in the event the Company fails to satisfy the asset coverage requirements under the 1940 Act on the Series B Preferred Stock, could jeopardize the Company's ability to meet the distribution requirements. The Company presently intends, however, to the extent possible, to purchase or redeem Series B Preferred Stock, if necessary, in order to maintain compliance with those asset coverage requirements. See "Taxation" for a more complete discussion of these and other federal income tax considerations.

Anti-takeover Provisions.....

Certain provisions of the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws may be regarded as "anti-takeover" provisions. Pursuant to these provisions, the affirmative vote of the holders of 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company is necessary to authorize the conversion of the Company from a closed-end to an open-end investment company and to authorize a merger or consolidation of the Company with an open-end investment company. The overall effect of these provisions is to make it more difficult to convert the Company's status to an open-end investment company. In addition, the affirmative vote of the holders of 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company is necessary to authorize the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company. See "Certain Provisions of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws; Anti-Takeover Provisions."

Custodian, Transfer Agent,
 Registrar and Dividend-Paying Agent.....

Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas serves as the Company's custodian. Mellon Investor Services LLC serves as the Company's stock transfer agent, registrar and dividend-paying agent. See "Custodian, Transfer Agent, Registrar and Dividend-Paying Agent."

For purposes of the foregoing table, the asset coverage per share is calculated by dividing the total value of the Company's assets on the last day of the relevant period by the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock outstanding on that date. Involuntary liquidation preference per share refers to the amount holders of Series A Preferred Stock are entitled to receive per share in the event of liquidation of the Company prior to the holders of common stock being entitled to receive any amounts in respect of the assets of the Company. The average market value per share is the average of the weekly closing prices of the Series A Preferred Stock on the NYSE each week during the relevant period.

The Company intends to redeem all of the outstanding Series A Preferred Stock on September 23, 2003. The Company's principal office is located at 450 Lexington Avenue, Suite 3300, New York, New York 10017, its telephone number is (212) 916-8400 and its toll-free telephone number is (800) 436-8401.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The net proceeds to the Company from this offering are estimated to be approximately $193,200,000 (after deducting the sales load and estimated offering expenses). The Company expects to invest these proceeds in accordance with its investment objectives and policies within six months from the completion of the offering, depending on market conditions for the types of securities in which the Company principally invests. Pending this investment, the proceeds will be held in high quality short-term debt securities and instruments. See "Investment Objectives and Policies."

CAPITALIZATION

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES

The Company's principal investment objective is long-term capital appreciation. Lesser emphasis is placed on current income. In seeking to achieve its primary investment objective, the Company invests principally in common stocks believed by its management to have better-than-average growth potential. There are market risks inherent in any investment, and no assurance can be given that the investment objectives of the Company will be achieved.

INVESTMENT POLICIES

The Company's investment policy is flexible, as its Restated Certificate of Incorporation permits the Company to invest in all forms of securities without limiting the portion of its assets that may be invested in any one type. While common stocks have made up the bulk of investments, assets may be held in cash or invested in all types of securities. These types of securities include, among others, bonds, debentures, notes, preferred and common stocks, rights and warrants. The Company may invest its assets in whatever amounts or proportions that it believes are best suited to current and anticipated economic and market conditions. As a diversified management investment company registered under the 1940 Act, the Company may not make any investment which would result in less than 75% of its assets being in cash or cash items, government securities and securities of other companies, limited in the case of any one issuer to not more than 5% of the Company's total assets and to 10% of the voting securities of that issuer.

CHANGES IN INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES; INVESTMENT RESTRICTIONS

The Company's principal investment objective is long-term capital appreciation. Lesser emphasis is placed on current income. These investment objectives may not be changed without the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Company's outstanding voting securities.

The policies set forth below are fundamental policies of the Company and may not be changed without the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Company's outstanding voting securities. Under these fundamental policies, the Company may not:

- Issue any class of senior security, or sell any such security of which it is the issuer, except as permitted by the 1940 Act.
- Borrow money in excess of 25% of its gross assets, except for the purchase or redemption of outstanding senior securities.
- Underwrite securities in excess of 20% of its gross assets.
- Increase its holdings in a particular industry by additional investment in that industry beyond 50% of the value of the Company's gross assets.
- Purchase or sell real estate.
- Purchase or sell commodities or commodity contracts in excess of 20% of its gross assets.
- Make loans (other than through the purchase of a portion of an issue of bonds, debentures or other securities, issued by another person) to other persons in an amount exceeding 10% to any one person or exceeding in the aggregate 20% of its gross assets.

- Invest in companies for the purpose of exercising control of management, unless it becomes necessary to do so to conserve any investment.

If a percentage restriction is met at the time of investment, a later increase or decrease in percentage resulting from a change in the value of portfolio securities or amount of total assets will not be considered a violation of that restriction.

Within the limits of these fundamental policies the Company has reserved freedom of action. While the Company's fundamental policy permits the Company to invest up to 50% of the gross value of its assets in a particular industry, it is the operating policy of the Company to not invest 25% or more of its assets in any one particular industry.

FOREIGN SECURITIES

The Company may invest its assets in foreign securities, which may include securities issued by companies in developing countries. As of June 30, 2003, 9.6% of the Company's net assets applicable to common stock were invested in securities of companies domiciled in foreign countries.

PORTFOLIO TURNOVER

The Company buys and sells securities to accomplish its investment objective. The investment policies of the Company and fluctuating market conditions are instrumental in determining the frequency of changes in investments. Consequently, it is not possible to predict the portfolio turnover of the Company with certainty. During the six months ended June 30, 2003 and the fiscal years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, the portfolio turnover of the Company was 7.15% (not annualized), 22.67% and 23.81%, respectively.

Portfolio turnover generally involves some expense to the Company, including brokerage commissions or dealer mark-ups and other transaction costs on the sale of securities and reinvestment in other securities. The portfolio turnover rate is computed by dividing the lesser of the amount of the long-term securities purchased or securities sold by the average monthly value of securities owned during the year (excluding securities whose maturities at acquisition were one year or less).

MANAGEMENT

Under the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Delaware General Corporation Law, the Company's business and affairs are managed by or under the direction of its Board of Directors. The Company's portfolio is internally managed by the officers of the Company, without an investment adviser. Information about the directors and officers of the Company is included in the Statement of Additional Information.

PORTFOLIO MANAGEMENT

Spencer Davidson, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, has been responsible for the management of the Company's portfolio since August 1995. Mr. Davidson joined the Company in 1994 as senior investment counselor. Prior thereto, he was the general partner of a private investment partnership. He has spent his entire business career on "Wall Street" since first joining an investment and banking firm in 1966.

Mr. Davidson supervises and coordinates the Company's investment operations and provides overall guidance with respect to industry developments and the economic outlook. He is assisted by seven individuals who have ongoing responsibility for monitoring and evaluating developments in industries in which they specialize. The essential function of the investment staff is to assess social, economic and technological changes and to evaluate whether these changes give rise to investment opportunities.

EXPENSES

The Company pays all of its own expenses, including, without limitation, salaries and benefits of its officers and employees; rent for office space; other investment research, administration and office operations costs; non-affiliated directors' fees; transfer agent, registrar and custodian fees; preparation, printing and distribution of its proxy statements, stockholder reports and notices; auditing and legal fees; federal registration fees; stock exchange listing fees and expenses; federal, state and local taxes; brokerage commissions; and the cost of issue and sale of its securities.

RISK FACTORS

Prospective investors should consider carefully the following risk factors in addition to other information set forth in this prospectus and the Statement of Additional Information prior to making an investment in the Series B Preferred Stock.

PREFERRED STOCK

GENERAL. There are a number of risks associated with an investment in Series B Preferred Stock. The market price for the Series B Preferred Stock will be influenced by changes in interest rates, the perceived credit quality of the Series B Preferred Stock and other factors.

The Series B Preferred Stock is not a debt obligation of the Company. The Series B Preferred Stock would be junior in respect of dividends and liquidation preference to any indebtedness incurred by the Company. Although unlikely, precipitous declines in the value of the Company's assets could result in the Company having insufficient assets to redeem all of the Series B Preferred Stock for the full redemption price.

The value of the Company's investment portfolio may decline, reducing the asset coverage for the Series B Preferred Stock. Further, if an issuer of a common stock in which the Company invests experiences financial difficulties or if an issuer's preferred stock or debt security is downgraded or defaults or if an issuer in which the Company invests is affected by other adverse market factors, there may be a negative impact on the income and/or asset value of the Company's investment portfolio.

RESTRICTIONS ON DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS. Restrictions imposed on the declaration and payment of dividends or other distributions to the holders of the Company's common stock and preferred stock, both by the 1940 Act and by requirements imposed by Moody's, might impair the Company's ability to maintain its qualification as a regulated investment company for federal income tax purposes. While the Company intends to redeem its preferred stock (including the Series B Preferred Stock) to the extent necessary to enable the Company to distribute its income as required to maintain its qualification as a regulated investment company under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), there can be no assurance that those actions can be effected in time to meet the Code requirements. See "Taxation" in the Statement of Additional Information.

RATINGS AND ASSET COVERAGE RISK. While it is a condition to the closing of the offering that Moody's assigns a rating of "Aaa" to the Series B Preferred Stock, the rating does not eliminate or necessarily mitigate the risks of investing in Series B Preferred Stock. The credit rating on the Series B Preferred Stock could be reduced or withdrawn while an investor holds shares, which would likely have an adverse effect on the liquidity and market value of the Series B Preferred Stock.

REDEMPTION. The Series B Preferred Stock is subject to both mandatory and optional redemption under specified circumstances at a redemption price equal to $25.00 per share plus accumulated and unpaid dividends (whether or not earned or declared) to the redemption date. Upon redemption, investors may not be able to reinvest the proceeds received from the redemption in an investment providing the same or a better rate than that of the Series B Preferred Stock. For a description of the circumstances in which the shares may be redeemed, see "Description of Series B Preferred Stock -- Redemption."

ILLIQUIDITY PRIOR TO EXCHANGE LISTING. Prior to the offering, there has been no public market for the Series B Preferred Stock. The Series B Preferred Stock has been approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to notice of official issuance. However, during an initial period, which is not expected to exceed 30 days after the date of this prospectus, the Series B Preferred Stock may not be traded on the NYSE. During this period, the underwriters intend to make a market in the Series B Preferred Stock though they have no obligation to do so. As a result, an investment in the Series B Preferred Stock may be illiquid during this period.

FOREIGN SECURITIES

The Company may invest its assets in foreign securities. Investing in securities of foreign companies and foreign governments, which generally are denominated in foreign currencies, may involve certain risk and opportunity considerations not typically associated with investing in domestic companies, including the risks listed below.

- Investing in foreign securities could cause the Company to be affected favorably or unfavorably by changes in currency exchange rates and revaluations of currencies.
- Less information may be available about foreign companies and foreign governments than about domestic companies. For example, foreign companies and foreign governments generally are not subject to uniform accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards or to other regulatory practices and requirements comparable to those applicable to domestic companies.
- Foreign securities and their markets may not be as liquid as U.S. securities and their markets.
- Securities of some foreign companies may involve greater market risk than securities of U.S. companies.
- Investing in foreign securities may result in higher expenses than investing in domestic securities because of the payment of fixed brokerage commissions on foreign exchanges, which generally are higher than commissions on U.S. exchanges, and the imposition of transfer taxes or transaction charges associated with foreign exchanges.
- Investment in foreign securities may also be subject to local economic risks, including instability of some foreign governments, the possibility of currency blockage or the imposition of withholding taxes on dividend or interest payments, and the potential for expropriation, nationalization or confiscatory taxation and limitations on the use or removal of funds or other assets.

DEPENDENCE ON KEY PERSONNEL

The Company is dependent upon the expertise of Mr. Spencer Davidson in providing portfolio management services with respect to the Company's investments. If the Company were to lose the services of Mr. Davidson, its investment decisions could be adversely affected to the extent the Company could not appoint a successor in a timely manner. The Company cannot assure you that it can find a suitable replacement for Mr. Davidson in a timely manner in the event of his death, resignation, retirement or inability to act on behalf of the Company.

DESCRIPTION OF SERIES B PREFERRED STOCK

The following is a summary of the terms of the Series B Preferred Stock. This description may not be complete in all respects, and is qualified by reference to the Certificate of Designations relating to the Series B Preferred Stock, the form of which is filed as an exhibit to this registration statement.

GENERAL

Under its Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the Company is authorized to issue up to 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock. The Board of Directors has the authority to establish the designations and the powers, preferences and rights of the shares of each series of preferred stock, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions of the shares of each series. As of June 30, 2003, 6,000,000 shares of the Company's Series A Preferred Stock were issued and outstanding. Pursuant to the Certificate of Designations relating to the Series A Preferred Stock, the Company may redeem the Series A Preferred Stock on each quarterly dividend payment date on or after June 23, 2003. The Company notified the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock on August 15, 2003 that it will redeem all of the outstanding shares of the Series A Preferred Stock on September 23, 2003.

Following the redemption of the Series A Preferred Stock, the Certificate of Designations relating to the Series B Preferred Stock will authorize the Company to issue up to 8,000,000 shares of Series B Preferred Stock. No fractional shares of Series B Preferred Stock will be issued. The Board of Directors reserves the right to issue additional shares of Series B Preferred Stock, from time to time, subject to the restrictions set forth in the Certificate of Designations. The shares of Series B Preferred Stock will, upon issuance, be fully paid and nonassessable and will have no preemptive, exchange or conversion rights. Any shares of Series B Preferred Stock repurchased or redeemed by the Company will be canceled and will revert to authorized but unissued preferred stock undesignated as to series. The Board of Directors may, by resolution, classify or reclassify any authorized but unissued preferred stock from time to time by setting or changing the preferences, rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations or terms of redemption. The Company will not issue any class of stock senior to the shares of Series B Preferred Stock.

Payments to the holders of Series B Preferred Stock of dividends or upon redemption or in liquidation will be subject to the prior payments of interest and repayment of principal then due on any other indebtedness of the Company.

DIVIDENDS

Holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock will be entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available therefor, cumulative cash dividends at the annual rate of 5.95% per share of the liquidation preference of $25.00 per share and no more, payable quarterly in arrears on March 24, June 24, September 24 and December 24 in each year (or, if that date is not a business day, on the next succeeding business day) (each, a "dividend payment date"), commencing December 24, 2003, to the persons in whose names the shares of Series B Preferred Stock are registered at the close of business on the preceding March 7, June 7, September 7 and December 7, respectively. Dividends on the shares of Series B Preferred Stock will accumulate from the date the shares are issued.

No dividends will be declared or paid or set apart for payment on shares of Series B Preferred Stock for any dividend period or part thereof unless full cumulative dividends have been or contemporaneously are declared and paid on all outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock through the most recent dividend payment dates thereof. If full cumulative dividends are not declared and paid (or a sum sufficient is set apart) on the Series B Preferred Stock, all dividends declared on the shares of Series B Preferred Stock will be paid pro rata to the holders of the outstanding shares. Holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock will not be entitled to any dividends, whether payable in cash, property or stock, in excess of full cumulative dividends. No interest, or sum of money in lieu of interest, will be payable in respect of any dividend payment that may be in arrears.

While any shares of Series B Preferred Stock are outstanding, the Company will not declare, pay or set apart for payment any dividend or other distribution on its common stock or any stock of the Company ranking junior to or on a parity with the Series B Preferred Stock as to dividends or upon liquidation unless the Company satisfies each condition specified below. This limitation will not apply to a dividend or distribution that will be paid in shares of, or options, warrants or rights relating to, the Company's common stock or stock ranking junior to the Series B Preferred Stock. In addition, while any shares of Series B Preferred Stock are outstanding, the Company will not call for redemption, redeem, purchase or otherwise acquire for consideration any shares of its common stock or any other of its stock ranking junior to the Series B Preferred Stock unless the Company satisfies each condition specified below. This limitation will not apply to the call for redemption, redemption, purchase or other acquisition by conversion into or exchange for the Company's common stock or other stock junior to the Series B Preferred Stock. The limitations on dividends and distributions or redemption and exchange discussed above will apply unless in each case the following conditions are satisfied:

- immediately after the transaction, the Company will hold assets with an aggregate discounted value for Moody's at least equal to the basic maintenance amount and the Company will maintain the asset coverage required by Moody's (see "Description of Rating Agency Guidelines -- Asset Maintenance" and "-- Redemption"),

- full cumulative dividends on shares of Series B Preferred Stock due on or prior to the date of the transactions have been declared and paid (or sufficient funds to cover the payment of the dividends have been deposited with the dividend-paying agent), and
- the Company has redeemed the full number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock required to be redeemed by any provision for mandatory redemption contained in the Certificate of Designations.

REDEMPTION

MANDATORY REDEMPTION. The Company will be required to redeem the Series B Preferred Stock in whole or in part in the event that the Company fails to maintain a quarterly asset coverage of at least 200% or fails to maintain the discounted asset coverage required by Moody's. See "Description of Rating Agency Guidelines -- Redemption."

The Series B Preferred Stock is also subject to mandatory redemption in whole by the Company at the redemption price if the Company's Board of Directors and holders of common stock authorize:

- the dissolution of the Company,
- any plan of reorganization (as that term is defined in the 1940 Act) adversely affecting the Series B Preferred Stock, or
- any action to change the nature of the Company business so as to cease to be an investment company as provided in Section 13(a)(4) of the 1940 Act.

OPTIONAL REDEMPTION. Prior to September 24, 2008, the Company may, at its option, redeem shares of Series B Preferred Stock only to the extent that the redemption is necessary, in the judgment of the Company, to maintain the Company's status as a regulated investment company under the Code. Commencing September 24, 2008 and any time thereafter, the Company may, at its option, redeem shares of Series B Preferred Stock in whole or in part. Any redemption is subject to the limitations of the 1940 Act, Delaware law and any other agreement relating to indebtedness of the Company.

REDEMPTION PRICE. Any redemption shall be made in cash at a price equal to $25.00 per share plus accumulated and unpaid dividends (whether or not earned or declared) to the redemption date.

REDEMPTION PROCEDURES. A notice of redemption will be given to the holders of record of Series B Preferred Stock selected for redemption not less than 30 or more than 60 days prior to the date fixed for the redemption. Each notice of redemption will state:

- the redemption date,
- the number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock to be redeemed,
- the CUSIP number(s) of the shares,
- the redemption price,
- the place or places where the shares are to be redeemed,
- that dividends on the shares to be redeemed will cease to accrue on the redemption date, and
- the provision of the Certificate of Designations under which the redemption is being made.

No defect in the notice of redemption or in the mailing thereof will affect the validity of the redemption proceedings, except as required by applicable law.

LIQUIDATION RIGHTS

Upon a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Company (whether voluntary or involuntary), holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock then outstanding will be entitled to receive a liquidation distribution in the amount of $25.00 per share (the "liquidation preference") plus an amount equal to all accumulated and unpaid dividends thereon, up to and including the date fixed for the distribution or payment excluding interest thereon. The holders will be entitled to receive the liquidation distribution out of assets of the Company available for distribution to stockholders, after satisfying claims of creditors but before any payment is made to holders of the Company's common stock or any other class of its stock ranking junior to the Series B Preferred Stock as to liquidation payments. Holders of Series B Preferred Stock are entitled to no further right or claim to any of the remaining assets of the Company. If the assets of the Company available for distribution among the holders of all outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock and any other shares of preferred stock then outstanding that rank equal with the Series B Preferred Stock with respect to payment upon liquidation, will be insufficient to permit the full payment of the liquidation preference, then the assets of the Company will be distributed ratably amongst those holders. If full payment of the liquidation preference is not made, no dividends or distributions will be made to holders of the Company's common stock or any other class of its stock ranking junior to the Series B Preferred Stock as to liquidation.

VOTING RIGHTS

Except as otherwise stated in this prospectus and as otherwise required by applicable law, holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock will be entitled to one vote per share on each matter submitted to a vote of stockholders and will vote together with holders of shares of common stock and of any other preferred stock of the Company then outstanding as a single class.

In connection with the election of the Company's directors, holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock and any other preferred stock then outstanding, voting as a separate class, will be entitled at all times to elect two of the Company's directors, and the remaining directors will be elected by holders of shares of common stock and holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock and any other preferred stock then outstanding, voting together as a single class. In addition, if at any time dividends on outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock and/or any other preferred stock are unpaid in an amount equal to at least two full years' dividends thereon or if at any time holders of any shares of preferred stock are entitled, together with the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock, to elect a majority of the directors of the Company under the 1940 Act, then the number of directors constituting the Board of Directors automatically will be increased by the smallest number that, when added to the two directors elected exclusively by the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock and any other preferred stock as described above, would constitute a majority of the Board of Directors as so increased by such smallest number. These additional directors will be elected at a special meeting of stockholders that will be called and held as soon as practicable. At all subsequent meetings at which directors are to be elected, the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock and any other preferred stock then outstanding, voting as a separate class, will be entitled to elect the smallest number of additional directors that, together with the two directors these holders in any event will be entitled to elect, constitutes a majority of the total number of directors of the Company as so increased. The terms of office of the persons who are directors at the time of that election will continue. If the Company thereafter pays, or declares and sets apart for payment in full, all dividends payable on all outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock and any other preferred stock for all past dividend periods, the additional voting rights of the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock and any other preferred stock as described above will cease, and the terms of office of all of the additional directors elected by the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock and any other preferred stock will terminate immediately and automatically. This termination will not affect any of the directors with respect to whose election the holders of shares of common stock were entitled to vote or the two directors the holders of shares of Series B Preferred Stock and any other preferred stock have the right to elect in any event.

So long as the shares of Series B Preferred Stock are outstanding, the Company will not, without the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock outstanding at the time, voting separately as one class, amend, alter or repeal the provisions of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation, whether by merger, consolidation or otherwise, so as to materially adversely affect any of the rights set forth in the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of holders of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock. The Board of Directors, however, without stockholder approval, may amend, alter or repeal the rating agency guidelines in the event the Company receives confirmation from Moody's that the amendment, alteration or repeal would not impair the rating then assigned to the Series B Preferred Stock.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by holders of outstanding shares of the Series B Preferred Stock and any other preferred stock then outstanding, voting as a separate class, will be required to approve any plan of reorganization adversely affecting these shareholders or any action requiring a vote of security holders under Section 13(a) of the 1940 Act. These include, among other things, any action to change the subclassification from a closed-end investment company to an open-end investment company and changes in the Company's investment objectives or changes in the investment restrictions described as fundamental policies under "Investment Objectives and Policies," each to the extent stockholder authorization is required. The class vote of holders of shares of the Series B Preferred Stock and any other preferred stock described above will be in addition to a separate vote of the requisite percentage of shares of common stock and Series B Preferred Stock and any other preferred stock, voting together as a single class, necessary to authorize the action in question.

The foregoing voting provisions will not apply to any shares of Series B Preferred Stock if, at or prior to the time when the act with respect to which the vote otherwise would be required will be effected, the shares will have been (i) redeemed or (ii) called for redemption and the Company has deposited with the dividend-paying agent sufficient funds to effect the redemption.

LIMITATION ON INCURRENCE OF INDEBTEDNESS AND ISSUANCE OF ADDITIONAL PREFERRED STOCK

So long as any shares of Series B Preferred Stock are outstanding, the Company may issue and sell one or more series of a class of senior securities of the Company that represent indebtedness under the 1940 Act and/or otherwise create or incur indebtedness, if,

- immediately after giving effect to the incurrence of the indebtedness and to its receipt and application of the proceeds thereof, the Company will have an "asset coverage," as defined in the 1940 Act, of at least 300% of the amount of all indebtedness of the Company then outstanding, and
- the additional indebtedness will not have any preference or priority over any other indebtedness of the Company upon the distribution of assets of the Company or in respect of the payment of interest.

Any possible liability resulting from lending and/or borrowing portfolio securities, entering into reverse repurchase agreements, entering into futures contracts and writing options, to the extent such transactions are made in accordance with the investment restrictions of the Company then in effect, will not be considered to be indebtedness limited by the Certificate of Designations.

So long as any shares of Series B Preferred Stock are outstanding, the Company may issue and sell shares of one or more other series of preferred stock constituting a class of senior securities of the Company that represent stock under the 1940 Act in addition to the shares of Series B Preferred Stock, provided that,

- if the Company is using the proceeds (net of all offering expenses payable by the Company) of the additional preferred stock to purchase all or a portion of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock or to redeem or otherwise refinance all or a portion of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock, any other preferred stock and/or any indebtedness of the Company then outstanding, then the Company will, immediately after giving effect to the issuance of the additional preferred stock and to its receipt and application of the proceeds thereof, have an "asset coverage" for all senior securities of the Company which are stock, as defined in the 1940 Act, of at least 200% of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock and all other preferred stock of the Company then outstanding, or
- if the Company is using the proceeds (net of all offering expenses payable by the Company) of the additional preferred stock for any other purpose, then the Company will, immediately after giving effect to the issuance of such additional preferred stock and to its receipt and application of the proceeds thereof, have an "asset coverage" for all senior securities of the Company which are stock, as defined in the 1940 Act, of at least 200% of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock and all other preferred stock of the Company then outstanding, and
- in the case of either situation above, no such additional preferred stock will have any preference or priority over any other preferred stock of the Company upon the distribution of the assets of the Company or in respect of the payment of dividends.

REPURCHASE OF SERIES B PREFERRED STOCK

The Company is a closed-end investment company. As a result, holders of Series B Preferred Stock do not, and will not, have the right to redeem their shares of the Company. The Company, however, may repurchase shares of the Series B Preferred Stock when it is deemed advisable by the Board of Directors in compliance with the requirements of the 1940 Act and the rules and regulations thereunder and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder.

Shares of Series B Preferred Stock will initially be held in the name of Cede & Co. ("Cede") as nominee for The Depository Trust Company ("DTC"). The Company will treat Cede as the holder of record of the Series B Preferred Stock for all purposes. In accordance with the procedures of DTC, however, purchasers of Series B Preferred Stock will be deemed the beneficial owners of shares purchased for purposes of dividends, voting and liquidation rights.

DESCRIPTION OF RATING AGENCY GUIDELINES

RATING AGENCY GUIDELINES

The following is a summary of the terms of the rating agency guidelines. This description may not be complete in all respects and is qualified by reference to the Certificate of Designations relating to the Series B Preferred Stock, the form of which is filed as an exhibit to this registration statement. FOR THE COMPLETE DEFINITIONS OF CERTAIN TERMS USED IN THE RATING AGENCY GUIDELINES AND SUMMARIZED HEREIN, PLEASE REFER TO THE GLOSSARY THAT APPEARS AT THE END OF THE STATEMENT OF ADDITIONAL INFORMATION AS WELL AS THE CERTIFICATE OF DESIGNATIONS.

The Series B Preferred Stock will be rated by Moody's. Moody's has established guidelines in connection with the Company's receipt of a rating of "Aaa" for the Series B Preferred Stock on their date of original issue. Moody's, a nationally recognized securities rating organization, issues ratings for various securities reflecting the perceived creditworthiness of those securities. The guidelines have been developed by Moody's in connection with issuances of asset-backed and similar securities, including debt obligations and various preferred stocks, generally on a case-by-case basis through discussions with the issuers of these securities. The guidelines are designed to ensure that assets underlying outstanding debt or preferred stock will be sufficiently varied and will be of sufficient quality and amount to justify investment-grade ratings. The guidelines do not have the force of law but are being adopted by the Company in order to satisfy current requirements necessary for Moody's to issue the above-described rating for the Series B Preferred Stock, which rating is generally relied upon by investors in purchasing these or similar securities. The guidelines provide a set of tests for portfolio composition and discounted asset coverage that supplements (and in some cases is more restrictive than) the applicable requirements of Section 18 of the 1940 Act. Moody's guidelines are included in the Certificate of Designations relating to the Series B Preferred Stock and are referred to in this prospectus as the "rating agency guidelines."

The Company intends to maintain assets having an aggregate discounted value weekly at least equal to the basic maintenance amount specified by the rating agency guidelines. See "-- Asset Maintenance -- Basic Maintenance Amount."

If the Company fails to meet this requirement and its failure is not cured, the Company will be required to redeem some or all of the Series B Preferred

Stock. See "-- Redemption." The rating agency guidelines exclude from the discounted asset value calculation certain types of securities in which the Company may invest and also limit the Company's acquisition of futures contracts or options on futures contracts, limit reverse repurchase agreements, limit the writing of options on portfolio securities and limit the lending of portfolio securities to 5% of the Company's total assets. The Company historically has either not acquired these instruments or has engaged in investment strategies requiring these instruments to only a limited degree. As a result, the Company does not believe that compliance with the rating agency guidelines will have an adverse effect on its portfolio or on the achievement of its investment objectives.

The Company may, but is not required to, adopt any modifications to the rating agency guidelines that may be established in the future by Moody's. Failure to adopt these modifications, however, may result in a change in Moody's rating or a withdrawal of a rating altogether. In addition, Moody's may, at any time, change or withdraw the rating. As set forth in the Certificate of Designations relating to the Series B Preferred Stock, the Board of Directors of the Company may, without stockholder approval, adjust, modify, alter or change the rating agency guidelines if Moody's advises the Company in writing that the adjustment, modification, alteration or change will not adversely affect its then current rating on the Series B Preferred Stock.

As described by Moody's, a preferred stock rating is an assessment of the capacity and willingness of an issuer to pay preferred stock obligations. The rating on the Series B Preferred Stock is not a recommendation to purchase, hold or sell such shares, inasmuch as the rating does not comment as to market price or suitability for a particular investor. Nor do the rating agency guidelines address the likelihood that a holder of Series B Preferred Stock will be able to sell such shares. The rating is based on current information furnished to Moody's by the Company and information obtained from other sources.

The rating may be changed, suspended or withdrawn as a result of changes in, or the unavailability of, such information.

The Company will pay fees to Moody's for rating the Series B Preferred Stock.

ASSET MAINTENANCE

The Company will be required to satisfy two separate asset maintenance requirements under the terms of the Certificate of Designations relating to the Series B Preferred Stock. These requirements are summarized below.

ASSET COVERAGE. The Company will be required under the Certificate of Designations to maintain as of the last business day of each March, June, September and December of each year, an asset coverage of at least 200% (or such higher percentage as may be required under the 1940 Act) with respect to all outstanding senior securities of the Company which are stock, including the Series B Preferred Stock. If the Company fails to maintain the asset coverage on these dates and its failure is not cured within 60 days, the Company will be required under certain circumstances to redeem certain of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock. See "-- Redemption."

If the shares of Series B Preferred Stock offered hereby had been issued and sold and all of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock had been redeemed as of June 30, 2003, the asset coverage immediately following the issuance and sale (after giving effect to the deduction of the sales load and estimated offering expenses of $6,800,000) would have been computed as follows:

Value of Company assets less liabilities not constituting senior securities	$1,094,195,376	=	547%
Senior securities representing indebtedness plus liquidation preference of the Series B Preferred Stock	$200,000,000

BASIC MAINTENANCE AMOUNT. The Company will be required under the Certificate of Designations to maintain, as of each valuation date, assets meeting specified guidelines of Moody's, as described under "-- Rating Agency Guidelines," having an aggregate discounted value at least equal to the basic maintenance amount. The basic maintenance amount is the minimum asset coverage specified by Moody's and generally is the dollar amount equal to:

- the sum of the aggregate liquidation preference of the Series B Preferred Stock, including any unpaid dividends on the valuation date plus all dividends on the Series B Preferred Stock accruing during the 70 days following the valuation date, and the Company's other liabilities due on, or within 90 days after, the valuation date, less
- the discounted value of the Company's assets and cash and certain high rated investments.

If the Company fails to meet this requirement as to any valuation date and its failure is not cured within 14 days after the relevant valuation date, the Company will be required to redeem certain of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock. See "-- Redemption."

Any security not in compliance with the rating agency guidelines described under "-- Rating Agency Guidelines" will be excluded from the discounted asset value calculation.

Moody's guidelines impose specified discounts, referred to as Moody's discount factors, to securities held by the Company. These discount factors and guidelines for determining the market value of the Company's portfolio holdings have been based on criteria established in connection with the rating of the Series B Preferred Stock. These factors include, but are not limited to:

- the sensitivity of the market value of the relevant asset to changes in interest rates,

- the liquidity and depth of the market for the relevant asset, the credit quality of the relevant asset (for example, the lower the rating of a corporate debt obligation, the higher the related discount factor), and
- the frequency with which the relevant asset is marked to market.

The Moody's discount factor relating to any asset of the Company and the basic maintenance amount, the assets eligible for inclusion in the calculation of the discounted value of the Company's assets and certain definitions and methods of calculation relating thereto may be changed from time to time by the Board of Directors, provided that, among other things, these changes will not impair the rating then assigned to the Series B Preferred Stock by Moody's.

Under the rating agency guidelines, the Company is required to prepare a maintenance report relating to each valuation date, which is generally the last business day of each week. The maintenance report sets forth the assets of the Company, the market value and the discounted value (as defined by Moody's) of those assets and the basic maintenance amount. The Company will deliver the maintenance reports to Moody's on a monthly basis. Annually, the Company will deliver letters prepared by the Company's independent auditors regarding the accuracy of the calculations made by the Company in the maintenance reports prepared by the Company in that calendar year.

REDEMPTION

The Company will be required to redeem, at a redemption price equal to $25.00 per share plus accumulated and unpaid dividends (whether or not earned or declared) to the date of redemption, certain of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock (to the extent permitted under the 1940 Act, Delaware law and any other agreement relating to indebtedness of the Company), in the event that:

- the Company fails to maintain the quarterly asset coverage of at least 200% and its failure is not cured on or before 60 days following such failure (a "cure date"), or
- the Company fails to maintain assets having an aggregate discounted value at least equal to the basic maintenance amount as of any valuation date, and its failure is not cured on or before the 14th day after the relevant valuation date (also, a "cure date").

In the event of mandatory redemption, the Company will redeem the minimum number of outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock which, if the redemption had occurred immediately prior to the opening of business on a cure date, would have resulted in:

- the quarterly asset coverage having been satisfied, or
- the Company's discounted asset value being equal to or greater than the basic maintenance amount on that cure date.

The Company will be required to redeem all of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock if the quarterly asset coverage or the discounted asset value requirements described above cannot be satisfied through the redemption of shares of Series B Preferred Stock.

In the event that shares of Series B Preferred Stock are redeemed due to the Company failing to maintain a quarterly asset coverage of at least 200% as noted above, the Company may, but is not required to, redeem a sufficient number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock so that the quarterly asset coverage after the redemption of the remaining outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock and any other preferred stock after redemption will be up to 225%.

In the event that shares of Series B Preferred Stock are redeemed due to the failure to meet the minimum aggregate discounted asset value as noted above, the Company may, but is not required to, redeem a sufficient number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock so that the aggregate discounted value of the Company's assets exceeds the basic maintenance amount of the remaining outstanding shares of Series B Preferred Stock and any other preferred stock by up to 10%.

If the Company does not have funds legally available for the redemption of, or is otherwise unable to redeem, all the shares of Series B Preferred Stock to be redeemed on any redemption date, the Company will redeem on such redemption date that number of shares for which it has legally available funds, or is otherwise able, to redeem ratably from each holder whose shares are to be redeemed. The remainder of the shares required to be redeemed will be redeemed on the earliest practicable date on which the Company will have funds legally available for the redemption of, or is otherwise able to redeem, such shares upon written notice of redemption ("notice of redemption").

If fewer than all shares of Series B Preferred Stock are to be redeemed, the redemption will be made pro rata from each holder of shares in accordance with the respective number of shares held by each holder on the record date for that redemption. If fewer than all shares of Series B Preferred Stock held by any holder are to be redeemed, the notice of redemption mailed to each holder will specify the number of shares to be redeemed from that holder. Unless all accumulated and unpaid dividends for all past dividend periods will have been or are contemporaneously paid or declared and funds for the payment thereof deposited with the dividend-paying agent, no redemptions of Series B Preferred Stock may be made.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK AND OTHER SECURITIES

CAPITAL STOCK

COMMON STOCK. The Company is authorized to issue 50,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share. Each share of common stock has equal voting, dividend, distribution and liquidation rights. The shares of common stock outstanding are fully paid and nonassessable. The shares of common stock are not redeemable and have no preemptive, conversion or cumulative voting rights. As a NYSE-listed company, the Company is required to hold annual meetings of its stockholders.

PREFERRED STOCK. The Company's Board of Directors has the authority to cause the Company to issue and sell up to 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share, in one or more series from time to time. The terms of any shares of preferred stock have or will be fixed by the Board of Directors and could materially limit and/or qualify the rights of the holders of the Company's common stock.

On June 19, 1998, the Company issued and sold 6,000,000 shares of its Series A Preferred Stock. Shares of Series A Preferred Stock are noncallable for five years and have a liquidation preference of $25.00 per share plus an amount equal to accumulated and unpaid dividends to the date of redemption. Holders of shares of the Series A Preferred Stock are entitled to receive cumulative cash dividends at the annual rate of 7.20% of the liquidation preference of $25.00 per share, when as and if declared by the Board of Directors and after creditors claims are satisfied. Under the Certificate of Designations relating to the Series A Preferred Stock, the Company is required to satisfy two separate asset maintenance requirements: asset coverage of at least 200% and portfolio holdings meeting specified guidelines by Moody's having an aggregate discounted value at least equal to a basic maintenance amount. Holders of shares of the Series A Preferred Stock have voting rights equivalent to those of the holders of common stock (one vote per share) and, generally, vote together with the holders of common stock as a single class. The terms of the Series A Preferred Stock are substantially similar to the terms of the Series B Preferred Stock offered hereby (except as to dividend rates).

Pursuant to the Certificate of Designations relating to the Series A Preferred Stock, the Company notified the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock on August 15, 2003 that it will redeem all of the outstanding shares of Series A Preferred Stock on September 23, 2003 for an aggregate redemption price equal to approximately $150,000,000. Upon redemption, all of the Series A Preferred Stock shall be canceled and shall revert to authorized but unissued shares of preferred stock undesignated as to series. Accordingly, the Series B Preferred Stock offered hereby may not be validly issued until a sufficient number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock outstanding have been redeemed. All of the shares of Series A Preferred Stock must be redeemed before any shares of the Series B Preferred Stock offered hereby may be issued.

The Board of Directors and the pricing committee thereof has, subject to the redemption of the Series A Preferred Stock, designated 8,000,000 shares of preferred stock as the Series B Preferred Stock offered hereby. See "Description of Series B Preferred Stock."

The following table shows the number of shares of (i) capital stock authorized, (ii) capital stock held by the Company for its own account and (iii) capital stock outstanding for each class of authorized capital stock of the Company as of June 30, 2003.

TAXATION

The following is a summary of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences to a stockholder of acquiring, holding and disposing of shares of the Series B Preferred Stock. This section is based on the Code, Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, published rulings and court decisions, all as currently in effect. These laws are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis. PLEASE CONSULT YOUR OWN TAX ADVISOR CONCERNING THE CONSEQUENCES OF INVESTING IN SHARES OF THE SERIES B PREFERRED STOCK IN YOUR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER THE CODE AND THE LAWS OF ANY OTHER TAXING JURISDICTION.

The Company has elected to be taxed as a regulated investment company under Subchapter M of the Code and intends to meet all other requirements that are necessary for it to be relieved of federal taxes on income and gains it distributes to stockholders. As a regulated investment company, the Company is not subject to federal income tax on the portion of its investment company taxable income (as that term is defined in the Code, without regard to the deduction for dividends paid) and net capital gain (i.e., the excess of net long-term capital gain over net short-term capital loss) that it distributes to stockholders, provided that it distributes at least 90% of its investment company taxable income for the year, and satisfies certain other requirements of the Code. Additionally, a regulated investment company will be subject to a 4% nondeductible excise tax to the extent it fails to distribute by the end of any calendar year substantially all of its ordinary income for the calendar year and capital gain net income for the one year period ending October 31 of that year, plus certain other amounts. The Company intends to make sufficient distributions of its qualified dividend income, ordinary income and capital gain net income prior to the end of each calendar year to avoid liability for Company-level tax.

TAXATION OF STOCKHOLDERS

The Company anticipates distributing substantially all of its net investment income for each taxable year. Dividends of net investment income paid to a noncorporate U.S. stockholder before January 1, 2009 that are designated as qualified dividend income will generally be taxable to such stockholder at a maximum rate of 15%. However, the amount of dividend income that may be so designated by the Company will generally be limited to the aggregate of the eligible dividends received by the Company. In addition, the Company must meet certain holding period and other requirements with respect to the shares on which the Company received the eligible dividends, and the noncorporate U.S. stockholder must meet certain holding period and other requirements with respect to the shares of Series B Preferred Stock. Eligible dividends are, in general, dividends from taxable domestic corporations and certain foreign corporations (e.g., generally, foreign corporations incorporated in a possession of the United States or in certain countries with a comprehensive tax treaty with the United States, or the stock of which is readily tradable on an established securities market in the United States). Dividends of net investment income that are not designated as qualified dividend income and dividends of net short-term capital gains will be taxable to stockholders at ordinary income rates to the extent they are paid out of the Company's current or accumulated earnings and profits. Dividends paid by the Company with respect to a taxable year will qualify for the 70% dividends received deduction generally available to corporations to the extent of the amount of dividends received by the Company from certain domestic corporations for the taxable year, provided that certain holding period and other requirements are met at the Company and stockholder level. Stockholders will be advised annually as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of distributions made during the year, including the portion of dividends paid that qualify for the reduced tax rate and the dividends received deduction.

The Company intends to distribute to stockholders its net capital gain for each taxable year. If net capital gain is distributed and designated as a "capital gain dividend," it will be taxable to stockholders as long-term capital gain, regardless of the length of time the stockholder has held its shares or whether such gain was recognized by the Company prior to the date on which the stockholder acquired its shares. Capital gain of a noncorporate U.S. stockholder that is recognized before January 1, 2009 is generally taxed at a maximum rate of 15% where the property is held by the Company for more than one year. Capital gain of a corporate stockholder is taxed at the same rate as ordinary income.

Distributions on shares of the Series B Preferred Stock that do not constitute qualified dividend income, ordinary income dividends or capital gain dividends will be treated as a return of capital to the extent of (and in reduction of) the stockholder's tax basis in its shares; any excess will be treated as gain from the sale of its shares, as discussed below.

Prospective investors in the Series B Preferred Stock should be aware that distributions from the Company will, all other things being equal, have the effect of reducing the market value of the Series B Preferred Stock by the amount of the distribution. If the market value is reduced below a stockholder's cost, the distribution will nonetheless be taxable as described above, even if the distribution effectively represents a return of invested capital. Investors should consider the tax implications of buying shares just prior to a distribution, when the price of shares may reflect the amount of the forthcoming distribution.

SALE OR REDEMPTION OF SHARES

A stockholder will recognize gain or loss on the sale or redemption of shares of Series B Preferred Stock in an amount equal to the difference between the proceeds of the sale or redemption and the stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the shares. All or a portion of any loss so recognized may be disallowed if the stockholder acquires other substantially identical shares of the Company within a period of 61 days beginning 30 days before such disposition.

In general, any gain or loss arising from (or treated as arising from) the sale or redemption of shares of Series B Preferred Stock will be considered capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the shares were held for more than one year. However, any capital loss arising from the sale or redemption of shares held for six months or less will be treated as a long-term capital loss to the extent of the amount of capital gain dividends received on (or undistributed capital gains credited with respect to) such shares. Capital gain of a noncorporate U.S. stockholder that is recognized before January 1, 2009 is generally taxed at a maximum rate of 15% where the property is held by the stockholder for more than one year. Capital gain of a corporate stockholder is taxed at the same rate as ordinary income.

BACKUP WITHHOLDING

The Company will be required in certain cases to backup withhold and remit to the U.S. Treasury a portion of qualified dividend income, ordinary income dividends, capital gain dividends and the proceeds of redemption of shares, paid to any stockholder (1) who has provided either an incorrect tax identification number or no number at all, (2) who is subject to backup withholding by the Internal Revenue Service for failure to report the receipt of interest or dividend income properly or (3) who has failed to certify to the Company that it is not subject to backup withholding or that it is a corporation or other "exempt recipient." Backup withholding is not an additional tax and any amounts withheld may be refunded or credited against a stockholder's federal income tax liability, provided the appropriate information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE RESTATED CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION AND BY-LAWS; ANTI-TAKEOVER PROVISIONS

The Company presently has provisions in its Restated Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws (together, in each case, its "governing documents") which could make it more difficult to convert the Company's status to an open-end investment company. The affirmative vote of the holders of 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company is required to authorize the conversion of the Company from a closed-end to an open-end investment company and to authorize a merger or consolidation of the Company with an open-end investment company. These and other provisions of the governing documents of the Company may be regarded as "anti-takeover" provisions. In addition, the affirmative vote of 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company is required to approve the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company. These governing documents of the Company are on file with the Commission.

The Board of Directors has determined that the foregoing voting requirements are in the best interests of the stockholders generally.

PRIVACY POLICY

The Company collects non-public personal information about its stockholders with respect to their transactions in shares of the Company's securities if the stockholders' shares are registered in their names. This information includes the stockholder's address, tax identification or Social Security number and dividend elections. The Company does not have knowledge of, nor does it collect personal information about, stockholders who hold the Company's securities at financial institutions such as brokers or banks in "street name" registration.

Under our privacy policy, the Company does not disclose any nonpublic personal information about its stockholders or former stockholders to anyone, except as permitted by law.

The Company restricts access to non-public personal information about its stockholders to employees to the extent necessary to perform services for its stockholders. The Company maintains physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard the non-public personal information of its stockholders.

CUSTODIAN, TRANSFER AGENT, REGISTRAR AND DIVIDEND-PAYING AGENT

Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, which is located at 130 Liberty Street, New York, New York 10006, acts as custodian of the Company's securities, cash and other assets directly or through a book-entry system. Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas is responsible for delivering and receiving payment for securities sold by the Company, receiving and paying for securities purchased by the Company, collecting income from investments of the Company and performing other duties, all as directed by an authorized person of the Company. Mellon Investor Services LLC, which is located at 85 Challenger Road, Ridgefield Park, New Jersey 07660, acts as the Company's transfer agent, registrar and dividend-paying agent and will serve in that capacity with respect to the Series B Preferred Stock.

UNDERWRITING

The underwriting agreement provides that the obligations of the underwriters to purchase the shares included in this offering are subject to approval of legal matters by counsel and to other conditions. The underwriters are obligated to purchase all the Series B Preferred Stock, if they purchase any of those shares. The Company has agreed to indemnify the underwriters against certain liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or to contribute to payments the underwriter may be required to make for any of those liabilities.

OFFERING OF SERIES B PREFERRED STOCK

The Company has been advised by the underwriters that they propose initially to offer some of the Series B Preferred Stock directly to the public at the public offering price set forth on the cover page of this prospectus and some of the shares to dealers at the public offering price less a concession not to exceed $.50 per share. The Company will pay a sales load of $0.7875 per share, which is equal to 3.15% of the initial offering price per share. After the initial public offering, the underwriters may change the public offering price and the concession. The directors, officers and employees of the Company may purchase shares of the Series B Preferred Stock under the terms and conditions being offered to the public. Investors must pay for any shares of Series B Preferred Stock purchased in the initial public offering on or before September 24, 2003. It is expected that certificates for the shares of Series B Preferred Stock will be ready for delivery only through the facilities of The Depository Trust Company in New York, New York on or about September 24, 2003, which is the fifth business day following the date of this prospectus. Under Rule 15c6-1 adopted by the Commission under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, trades in the secondary market generally are required to settle in three business days, unless the parties to any such trade expressly agree otherwise. Accordingly, purchasers who wish to trade shares of Series B Preferred Stock prior to the closing date may be required to specify alternate settlement arrangements to prevent a failed settlement because of the initial settlement procedures.

Prior to the offering, there has been no public market for the Series B Preferred Stock. The Series B Preferred Stock has been approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to notice of official issuance. However, during an initial period which is not expected to exceed 30 days after the date of this prospectus, the Series B Preferred Stock may not be traded on the NYSE. During this period, the underwriters intend to make a market in the Series B Preferred Stock; however, they have no obligation to do so. Consequently, an investment in the Series B Preferred Stock may be illiquid during this period.

In connection with the offering, the underwriters may purchase and sell shares of Series B Preferred Stock in the open market. These transactions may include short sales and stabilizing transactions. Short sales involve syndicate sales of shares in excess of the number of shares to be purchased by the underwriters in the offering, which creates a syndicate short position. Stabilizing transactions consist of bids for or purchases of shares in the open market while the offering is in progress.

The underwriters also may impose a penalty bid. Penalty bids permit the underwriters to reclaim a selling concession from a syndicate member when the underwriters repurchase shares originally sold by that syndicate member in order to cover syndicate short positions or make stabilizing purchases.

Any of these activities may have the effect of preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of the stock. They may also cause the price of the Series B Preferred Stock to be higher than the price that would otherwise exist in the open market in the absence of these transactions. The underwriters may conduct these transactions on the NYSE or in the over-the-counter market, or otherwise. If the underwriters commence any of these transactions, they may discontinue them at any time.

PROVISION OF OTHER SERVICES TO THE COMPANY

The underwriters or their affiliates have acted in the past and the Company anticipates that the underwriters or their affiliates may continue from time to time to act as brokers or dealers in executing the Company's portfolio transactions. The underwriters and their affiliates are active underwriters of, and dealers in, securities and act as market makers in a number of these securities, and therefore can be expected to engage in transactions with, including portfolio transactions, and perform services for, the Company in the ordinary course of their business.

GENERAL INFORMATION AND HISTORY

General American Investors Company, Inc. (the "Company") was organized as a Delaware corporation on October 15, 1928 and succeeded to a similar business established in 1927. The Company is a diversified closed-end investment company, and is an internally-managed independent organization. Net assets applicable to the common stock, par value $1.00 of the Company were $900,995,376 as of June 30, 2003. In addition, the aggregate liquidation value of the Company's 6,000,000 shares of 7.20% Tax-Advantaged Cumulative Preferred Stock, Series A, par value $1.00 per share (liquidation preference $25.00 per share) ("Series A Preferred Stock"), issued on June 19, 1998, was $150,000,000 as of June 30, 2003.

In 1973, the Company commenced providing investment advisory services to outside accounts and, in 1974, it registered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended (the "Advisers Act"). In 1980, the Company formed a wholly-owned subsidiary, General American Advisers, Inc., which also registered under the Advisers Act. The subsidiary, which began operations in April 1981, was formed to enable the Company to remain in compliance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, which, in effect, limit the amount of service income that may be earned by a regulated investment company. As of December 31, 1995, the subsidiary discontinued its operations and, in early 1996, deregistered as an investment advisory company. On July 31, 1998, the Company ceased to provide investment advisory services to outside accounts and in January 1999, the Company deregistered as an investment advisory company.

Shares of the Company's common stock are listed and traded on the New York Stock Exchange (under the symbol "GAM"). The Company notified the holders of Series A Preferred Stock on August 15, 2003 that it will redeem all of the outstanding Series A Preferred Stock on September 23, 2003 for an aggregate redemption price equal to approximately $150,000,000. Shares of the Series A Preferred Stock are listed and traded on the New York Stock Exchange (under the symbol "GAM Pr").

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES AND POLICIES

The Company's principal investment objective is long-term capital appreciation. Lesser emphasis is placed on current income. These objectives may not be changed without the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Company's outstanding voting securities.

FUNDAMENTAL POLICIES

Except for the information set forth in items (2) and (5) below, the following are fundamental policies which may not be changed without the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Company's voting securities:

(1) The Company may issue debt and senior equity securities to the extent permitted by the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act").

(2) The Company has no policy with respect to short sales, purchases on margin or the writing of put and call options. Prior to 2000, the Company had not engaged in transactions of this nature; however, it has complete freedom of action to do so in the future and during the past three years the Company has engaged in short sales of securities to a limited extent, principally for hedging purposes.

(3) The Company may not borrow money in excess of 25% of its gross assets, except for the purchase or redemption of outstanding senior securities.

(4) The Company may not underwrite securities in excess of 20% of its gross assets.

(5) The Company has no policy restricting the acquisition of restricted securities (securities that must be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended) before they may be offered or sold to the public.

B-2

(6) The Company's holdings in a particular industry may not be increased by additional investment in that industry beyond 50% of the value of the Company's gross assets.

(7) The Company does not purchase or sell real estate.

(8) The Company may not trade in commodities and commodity contracts in excess of 20% of its gross assets.

(9) The Company may not make loans (other than through the purchase of a portion of an issue of bonds, debentures or other securities issued by another person) to other persons in an amount exceeding 10% to any one person or exceeding in the aggregate 20% of its gross assets.

(10) The Company does not make investments for the purpose of participating in management, although it maintains the freedom to do so if it should become necessary to conserve any investment.

Other than as set forth above and subject to the requirements of the 1940 Act relating to diversified investment companies, the Company's investment policy is flexible, as its charter permits investment in all forms of securities without limiting the portion of its assets which may be invested in any one type. The Company's operating policy, however, is to not invest 25% or more of its assets in any one particular industry.

- (1) Each director is elected for a one year term of office.
- (2) Mr. Davidson is an "interested" director, as defined in the 1940 Act, because he is an officer of the Company.

Normally, holders of shares of preferred stock of the Company, including the Series B Preferred Stock, voting as a separate class, will elect two members of the Company's Board of Directors, and holders of preferred stock and common stock, voting as a single class, will elect the remaining directors. See "Description of Series B Preferred Stock -- Voting Rights" in the prospectus. Messrs. Altschul and Knafel have been designated as the preferred stock directors and are to be elected only by the holders of the Company's preferred stock.

OFFICERS

The following table sets forth certain information with respect to each officer of the Company other than Mr. Spencer Davidson, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, information with respect to whom is set forth above. ## COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors has an Audit Committee comprised of the following directors, all of whom are "non-interested" directors: Mr. Sidney R. Knafel, Chairman, Mr. Arthur G. Altschul, Jr., Mr. Lawrence B. Buttenwieser, Mr. Lewis B. Cullman, Mr. John D. Gordan, III and Mr. Raymond S. Troubh. Generally, the Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in its oversight of the Company's accounting and financial reporting and internal controls, the independent audit of the Company's financial statements, the selection of the independent auditors and the evaluation of the independence of the independent auditors. The Audit Committee met twice during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002.

The Board of Directors has a Compensation Committee comprised of the following directors: Mr. Joseph T. Stewart, Jr., Chairman, Mr. Arthur G. Altschul, Jr., Mr. Lawrence B. Buttenwieser, Mr. Sidney R. Knafel, Mr. Richard

R. Pivirotto and Mr. Raymond S. Troubh; and Mr. Lewis B. Cullman and Dr. Gerald M. Edelman, alternates. Generally, the Compensation Committee reviews the operations of the Company and performance and contributions made during each year by its officers and employees, reviews management proposals for year-end supplemental compensation and levels of compensation for the ensuing year, reviews comparable operating and compensation data of other companies in the investment industry, including information and trends provided by an outside consulting firm, and makes recommendations on matters of compensation to the Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee met once during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002.

The Board of Directors has an Executive Committee comprised of the following directors: Mr. Richard R. Pivirotto, Chairman, Mr. Lawrence B. Bittenwieser, Mr. Spencer Davidson (an "interested person" of the Company), Dr. Gerald M. Edelman and Mr. Joseph T. Stewart, Jr.; and Mr. John D. Gordan, III, alternate. The Executive Committee has the authority to exercise the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of the Company when the Board is not in session. The Executive Committee did not meet during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002.

The Board of Directors has a Nominating Committee comprised of the following directors (all of the Company's "non-interested" directors): Mr. Richard R. Pivirotto, Chairman, Mr. Arthur G. Altschul, Jr., Mr. Lawrence B. Bittenwieser, Mr. Lewis B. Cullman, Dr. Gerald M. Edelman, Mr. John D. Gordan, III, Mr. Sidney R. Knafel, Mr. Joseph T. Stewart, Jr. and Mr. Raymond S. Troubh. The Nominating Committee is responsible for directing the process whereby individuals are selected and nominated to serve as directors of the Company. This includes canvassing, recruiting, interviewing and soliciting independent director candidates and making recommendations to the Board with respect to individuals to be nominated to serve as directors. In addition, the Nominating Committee will consider nominees recommended by, and respond to related inquiries received from, stockholders. The Nominating Committee met once during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002.

The Board of Directors has a Pension Committee comprised of the following directors: Mr. John D. Gordan, III, Chairman, Mr. Lewis B. Cullman, Dr. Gerald M. Edelman, Mr. Richard R. Pivirotto, and Mr. Raymond S. Troubh; and Mr. Sidney R. Knafel and Mr. Joseph T. Stewart, Jr., alternates. The Pension Committee is responsible for the general administration of the Company's Employees' Retirement Plan and establishes and carries out a funding policy and method consistent with the objectives of the Plan. The Pension Committee met once during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002.

- (1) The amounts shown in this column represent the Company's payments made during 2002 to the trustee of the Company's Employees' Thrift Plan, as described below, or accounting reserves established during 2002 under the Company's Excess Contribution Plan, as described below, on behalf of the respective individuals or group members.
- (2) Member of Executive Committee.
- (3) Member of Audit Committee.
- (4) Member of Compensation Committee.

(5) Member of Nominating Committee.

(6) Member of Pension Committee.

(7) Mr. Green served as a director through the date of his death, October 14, 2002.

During 2002, each director who was not a paid officer of the Company received a fee of $10,000 as an annual retainer, a fee of $500 for attendance at each directors' meeting and $500 for each committee meeting which he attended in his capacity as a director.

With respect to the Company's Employees' Thrift Plan, the Company matches 150% of an employee's contributions up to 8% of basic salary to the plan. Company contributions are invested in shares of the Company's common stock. An employee's interest in Company contributions to his account is fully vested after six years of service. Partial vesting begins after two years of participation in the plan. All employees, including officers, are eligible to participate in the Thrift Plan after six months of service with the Company. Employees whose annual compensation exceeds $150,000 are required to invest their future contributions to the plan in shares of the Company's common stock, and their existing plan balances will be converted into the Company's common stock over the three years next succeeding the attainment of that compensation level.

B-7

The Company has an Employees' Retirement Plan, which is broadly characterized as a defined benefit plan. The Company contributes to the trustee for the plan annual costs, which include actuarially determined current service costs and amortization of prior service costs. Retirement benefits are based on final average earnings (basic salary and beginning in 2000, bonuses, but only for non-highly compensated employees, exclusive of bonuses for highly compensated employees, overtime, commissions, pension, retainer fees, fees under contracts or any other forms of additional or special compensation, for the five consecutive years in which the participant had the highest basic salary during the last ten years of service) and years of credited service, less an offset for social security covered compensation, plus an additional amount equal to $50 for each year of credited service. All employees, including officers, over age 21 commence participation in the plan after one year of service and are fully vested after six years of service. Partial vesting begins after two years of service. Participants are eligible to receive normal retirement benefits at age 65. In certain instances, a reduced benefit may begin upon retirement between ages 55 and 65.

The following table shows the estimated annual retirement benefits (including amounts attributable to the Company's Excess Benefit Plan, as described below), which are subject to a deduction based on a portion of social security covered compensation, payable on a straight life annuity basis, at normal retirement date to all eligible employees, including officers, in specified compensation and years-of-service classifications:

ESTIMATED ANNUAL BENEFITS BASED UPON YEARS OF CREDITED SERVICE -----
 ----- FINAL AVERAGE EARNINGS 10
 20 30 40 -----

Final Average Earnings	20 Years	30 Years	40 Years
$100,000	$16,830	$33,665	$50,495
200,000	33,120	66,245	99,365
300,000	49,410	98,825	148,235
400,000	65,700	131,405	197,105
500,000	81,990	163,985	245,975
600,000	98,280	196,565	294,845

For each of the officers of the Company listed in the compensation table on page B-7, the following indicates his years of credited service in the Company's Retirement Plan and basic salary for 2002: Spencer Davidson(8) $600,000, Andrew V. Vindigni(14) $400,000 and Eugene L. DeStaebler, Jr.(26) $300,000.

The Company also has Excess Contribution and Excess Benefit Plans. Under such plans, the Company may establish accounting reserves and make payments directly to selected participants in the Company's Thrift and Retirement Plans, respectively, to the extent the levels of contributions or benefits for such participants under such plans are limited by Sections 415, 416 and/or 401(a)(17) of the Internal Revenue Code. Such benefits commence at the time benefits commence under the related tax-qualified plan. Messrs. Davidson, Vindigni and DeStaebler are participants in both the Excess Contribution and Excess Benefit Plans.

PROXY VOTING POLICIES

The overriding policy that guides the manner in which the Company votes proxies is the best long-term interests of the Company. While generally supporting and voting in accordance with the recommendations of management, the Company reviews each proposal and any competing interests on a case-by-case basis. Proposals and recommendations made by management of a portfolio company are reviewed to gain assurance that management's positions are consistent with its integrity and the long-term interests of the company. When this is the case, significant weight is given to the views of management when the Company votes proxies. Where a proposal negatively impacts the rights or privileges of the Company's portfolio securities, the Company would vote against such proposal unless adequate justification for it were presented. Faced with proposals that involve changes in the state of incorporation, mergers or other restructuring, the Company would, if necessary, complete its review of the rationale for the proposal by contacting the company's representatives and, with few exceptions, vote in favor of management's recommendations. Proposals relating to anti-takeover provisions are considered in light of the Company's assessment of the capability of current management, the duration of the proposal and the negative impact it might have on the attractiveness of the company to future investors, among other factors. The Company will generally vote with management on proposals relating to changes of a company's capital structure, based on a review of the particular facts before finalizing any decision. The Company also generally votes in favor of well-structured stock option plans and management compensation programs. The Company generally supports management recommendations with respect to stockholder proposals relating to social issues.

CODE OF ETHICS AND RELATED MATTERS

The Company has had a written code of ethics since 1981, which was amended most recently as of October 9, 2002, with respect to trading in securities by its directors, officers and employees. The code generally prohibits such persons from taking personal advantage of any information they may have concerning the Company's current investment decisions or programs. The code permits personnel subject to its provisions to invest in securities subject to procedures, such as preclearance of securities transactions, reasonably necessary to prevent access persons from engaging in any unlawful conduct set forth in Rule 17j-1. Access persons will not be given preclearance to trade in securities which are in the process of being purchased or sold, or securities being considered for purchase or sale, by the Company. The code of ethics can be reviewed and copied at the Securities and Exchange Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, D.C. Information on the operations of the Reference Room may be obtained by calling the Securities and Exchange Commission at (202) 942-8090. The code of ethics is also available on the EDGAR database on the Securities and Exchange Commission's website at <http://www.sec.gov>. Copies of the code of ethics may also be obtained, after paying a duplicating fee, by electronic request at the following e-mail address: publicinfo@sec.gov, or by writing the Securities and Exchange Commission's Public Reference Section, Washington, D.C. 20549-0102.

INVESTMENT ADVISORY AND OTHER SERVICES

CUSTODIAN

Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, 130 Liberty Street, New York, New York 10006, is the custodian for the assets of the Company. The custodian is responsible for holding all cash and securities of the Company, directly or through a book-entry system, delivering and receiving payment for securities sold by the Company, receiving and paying for securities purchased by the Company, collecting income from investments of the Company and performing other duties, all as directed by an authorized person of the Company. During 2002, 2001 and 2000, the Company paid $34,500, $38,500 and $37,500, respectively, in fees to Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas for its custodial services.

REGISTRAR, TRANSFER AGENT AND DIVIDEND-PAYING AGENT

Mellon Investor Services LLC, which is located at 85 Challenger Road, Ridgefield Park, New Jersey 07660, acts as the Company's transfer agent, registrar and dividend-paying agent with respect to the Company's common stock and Series A Preferred Stock and will serve in such capacity with respect to the Series B Preferred Stock.

BROKERAGE ALLOCATION AND OTHER PRACTICES

The Company's general policy regarding the execution of securities transactions is to select brokers and dealers on the basis of the most favorable markets, prices and execution of orders. A certain amount of the Company's securities transactions are placed with brokers and dealers who provide brokerage and research services and in these circumstances the commissions paid may be higher than those which might otherwise have been paid to another broker or dealer if those services had not been provided.

Research services generally include receipt of written reports, attendance at meetings or participation in discussions with respect to specific subjects, such as a company, an industry or the economic outlook. Block availability is also a consideration in determining the selection of brokers.

In negotiating brokerage commissions on securities transactions, the Company's trader, with his awareness of competitive rates, negotiates the most favorable commission to effect a particular transaction. Size of order and difficulty of execution are considerations in the negotiation. All transactions, including the commission factor, are subject to supervision and review by the Company's officers.

During the year ended December 31, 2002, the Company did not acquire any securities of any of its regular brokers or dealers (as defined in Rule 10b-1 under the 1940 Act) or of any of their parents.

Brokerage commissions paid by the Company during 2002, 2001 and 2000 were $1,096,080, $620,552 and $944,948, respectively.

One or more of the underwriters or their affiliates may have effected purchases and sales of the portfolio securities of the Company and may be chosen to effect similar transactions for the Company in the future.

NET ASSET VALUE

The Company calculates the net asset value of its shares of common stock daily and makes that information available daily at the Company's website www.generalamericaninvestors.com, by telephone at (212) 916-8400 or, toll-free, (800) 436-8401 and for distribution on most electronic quotation systems using the symbol "XGAMX." Currently, The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times and Barron's publish net asset values for closed-end investment companies weekly. Net asset value per share of common stock is determined at the close of regular trading on the New York Stock Exchange (currently 4:00 P.M., Eastern time) on each day on which the exchange is open. The net asset value of the Company's common stock is calculated by dividing the current value of the Company's total assets less the sum of all of its liabilities and the aggregate liquidation preference of its outstanding shares of preferred stock, by the total number of shares of the common stock outstanding.

In determining net asset value, securities listed on an exchange or on the NASDAQ National Market System are valued on the basis of the last reported sale prior to the time the valuation is made. Listed and NASDAQ securities for which no sales are reported on such day and other securities traded in the over-the-counter market are valued at the last bid price (asked price for open short positions) on the valuation date. Quotations are taken from the market where the security is primarily traded. Securities traded primarily on foreign exchanges are valued at the closing values of such securities on their respective exchanges as of the day the securities are being valued. Corporate discount notes and U.S. Treasury bills are valued at amortized cost, which approximates market value. Securities for which market quotations are not readily available are valued at their fair value under procedures established and supervised by the Company's Board of Directors.

The sales load and the expenses of issuance and distribution associated with the Series B Preferred Stock will be charged to paid-in capital.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The audited financial statements included in the Annual Report to the Company's stockholders for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, together with the report of Ernst & Young LLP thereon, and the unaudited financial statements included in the Semi-Annual Report to the Company's stockholders for the six months ended June 30, 2003, together with the review report of Ernst & Young LLP thereon, are incorporated herein by reference. Copies of the Annual Report and Semi-Annual Report to the Company's stockholders may be obtained without charge by writing to the Company at its address at 450 Lexington Avenue, Suite 3300, New York, New York 10017 or by calling the Company at (212) 916-8400 or toll-free at (800) 436-8401.

TAXATION

The following is a summary of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences to a stockholder of acquiring, holding and disposing of shares of the Series B

Preferred Stock. This section is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, published rulings and court decisions, all as currently in effect. These laws are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis. PLEASE CONSULT YOUR OWN TAX ADVISOR CONCERNING THE CONSEQUENCES OF INVESTING IN SHARES OF THE SERIES B PREFERRED STOCK IN YOUR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER THE CODE AND THE LAWS OF ANY OTHER TAXING JURISDICTION.

TAXATION OF THE COMPANY

The Company has elected to be taxed as a regulated investment company under Subchapter M of the Code and intends to meet all other requirements that are necessary for it to be relieved of federal taxes on income and gains it distributes to stockholders. As a regulated investment company ("RIC"), the Company is not subject to federal income tax on the portion of its investment company taxable income (as that term is defined in the Code, without regard to the deduction for dividends paid) and net capital gain (i.e., the excess of net long-term capital gain over net short-term capital loss) that it distributes to stockholders, provided that it distributes at least 90% of its investment company taxable income for the year (the "Distribution Requirement"), and satisfies certain other requirements of the Code that are described below.

In addition to satisfying the Distribution Requirement, the Company must derive at least 90% of its gross income in each taxable year from dividends, interest, certain payments with respect to loans of stock and securities, gains from the sale or disposition of stock, securities or foreign currencies and other income (including but not limited to gains from options, futures or forward contracts) derived with respect to its business of investing in such stock, securities or currencies.

The Company must also satisfy an asset diversification test in order to qualify as a regulated investment company. Under this test, at the close of each quarter of the Company's taxable year, (1) 50% or more of the value of the Company's assets must be represented by cash, United States government securities, securities of other regulated investment companies, and other securities, with such other securities limited, in respect of any one issuer, to an amount not greater than 5% of the value of the Company's assets and 10% of the outstanding voting securities of such issuer and (2) not more than 25% of the value of the Company's assets may be invested in securities of any one issuer (other than U.S. government securities or securities of other regulated investment companies), or of two or more issuers which the Company controls and which are engaged in the same, similar or related trades or businesses.

If for any year the Company does not qualify as a regulated investment company or satisfy the Distribution Requirement, all of its taxable income (including its net capital gain) will be subject to tax at regular corporate rates without any deduction for distributions to stockholders. In this case, distributions from the Company will generally be taxable to the stockholders as qualified dividend income, as discussed below, and generally will be eligible for the dividends received deduction in the case of corporate stockholders.

A 4% non-deductible excise tax is imposed on a regulated investment company to the extent that it distributes income in such a way that it is taxable to stockholders in a calendar year other than the calendar year in which the regulated investment company earned the income. Specifically, the excise tax will be imposed if the regulated investment company fails to distribute in each calendar year an amount equal to the sum of (1) 98% of qualified dividend income and ordinary taxable income for the calendar year, (2) 98% of capital gain net income for the one-year period ending on October 31 of such calendar year (or, at the election of a regulated investment company having a taxable year ending November 30 or December 31, for its taxable year), and (3) all qualified dividend income, ordinary taxable income and capital gain net income for previous years that was not previously distributed. For purposes of the imposition of the excise tax, amounts that are not actually distributed but that are taxed to the regulated investment company as investment company taxable income or capital gain income will be treated as having been distributed during the calendar year in which such tax is imposed.

The Company intends to make sufficient distributions of its qualified dividend income, ordinary income and capital gain net income prior to the end of each calendar year to avoid liability for this excise tax. However, investors should note that the Company may in certain circumstances be required to liquidate portfolio investments to make sufficient distributions to avoid excise tax liability.

If the Company does not meet the asset coverage requirements of the 1940 Act or the Certificate of Designations, the Company will be required to suspend distributions to the holders of the common stock until the asset coverage is restored. See "Description of Series B Preferred Stock -- Dividends" in the prospectus. Such a suspension of distributions might prevent the Company from satisfying the Distribution Requirement, or might prevent it from distributing enough net investment income and capital gain net income to avoid completely the imposition of the excise tax. Upon any failure to meet the asset coverage requirements, the Company may, and in certain circumstances will, be required to redeem shares of Series B Preferred Stock in order to restore the requisite asset coverage and avoid the adverse consequences to the Company and its stockholders of failing to satisfy the Distribution Requirement. If asset coverage were restored, the Company would again be able to pay dividends and might be able to avoid Company-level taxation.

The Company may make investments or engage in transactions that affect the character, amount and timing of gains or losses realized by the Company. The Company may make investments that produce income that is not matched by a corresponding cash receipt by the Company. Any such income would be treated as income earned by the Company and therefore would be subject to the distribution requirements of the Code. Such investments may require the Company to borrow money or dispose of other securities in order to comply with those requirements.

The Company may also make investments that prevent or defer the recognition of losses or the deduction of expenses. These investments may likewise require the Company to borrow money or dispose of other securities in order to comply with the distribution requirements of the Code. Additionally, the Company may make investments that result in the recognition of ordinary income or short-term capital gain rather than long-term capital gain, that result in the recognition of a capital loss rather than an ordinary loss, or that prevent the Company from accruing a long-term holding period. These investments may prevent the Company from making capital gain distributions as described below. The Company intends to monitor its transactions, will make the appropriate tax elections and will make the appropriate entries in its books and records when it makes any such investments in order to mitigate the effect of these rules.

The Company invests in equity securities of foreign issuers. If the Company purchases shares in certain foreign corporations (referred to as passive foreign investment companies ("PFICs") under the Code), the Company may be subject to federal income tax on a portion of any "excess distribution" from such foreign corporation, including any gain from the disposition of such shares, even if such income is distributed by the Company to its stockholders. In addition, certain interest charges may be imposed on the Company as a result of such distributions. If the Company were to invest in an eligible PFIC and elected to treat the PFIC as a qualified electing fund (a "QEF"), in lieu of the foregoing requirements, the Company would be required to include each year in its income and distribute to stockholders in accordance with the distribution requirements of the Code, a pro rata portion of the QEF's ordinary earnings and net capital gain, whether or not distributed by the QEF to the Company. Alternatively, the Company generally will be permitted to "mark to market" any shares it holds in a PFIC. If the Company made such an election, the Company would be required to include in income each year and distribute to stockholders in accordance with the distribution requirements of the Code, an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the fair market value of the PFIC stock as of the close of the taxable year over the adjusted basis of such stock at that time. The Company would be allowed a deduction for the excess if any, of the adjusted basis of the PFIC stock over its fair market value as of the close of the taxable year, but only to the extent of any net mark-to-market gains with respect to the stock included by the Company for prior taxable years. The Company will make appropriate basis adjustments in the PFIC stock to take into account the mark-to-market amounts.

Notwithstanding any election made by the Company, dividends received by the Company will not constitute eligible dividends that can be distributed to the Company's stockholders and designated as qualified dividend income, as discussed below, if the payor is a PFIC either in the taxable year of the distribution or the preceding taxable year. Instead, distributions to the Company's stockholders that are attributable to such dividends will be taxed at ordinary income rates.

Income received by the Company from sources within foreign countries may be subject to withholding and other taxes imposed by such countries. The Company historically has invested less than 50% of its total assets in foreign securities. As long as the Company continues to invest less than 50% of its assets in foreign securities, it will not be eligible to "pass-through" to stockholders of the Company the ability to use the foreign tax deduction or foreign tax credit for foreign taxes paid by the Company.

TAXATION OF STOCKHOLDERS

The Company anticipates distributing substantially all of its net investment income for each taxable year. Dividends of net investment income paid to a noncorporate U.S. stockholder before January 1, 2009 that are designated as qualified dividend income will generally be taxable to such stockholder at a maximum rate of 15%. However, the amount of dividend income that may be so designated by the Company will generally be limited to the aggregate of the eligible dividends received by the Company. In addition, the Company must meet certain holding period and other requirements with respect to the shares on which the Company received the eligible dividends, and the noncorporate U.S. stockholder must meet certain holding period and other requirements with respect to the shares of Series B Preferred Stock. Eligible dividends are, in general, dividends from taxable domestic corporations and certain foreign corporations (e.g., generally, foreign corporations incorporated in a possession of the United States or in certain countries with a comprehensive tax treaty with the United States, or the stock of which is readily tradable on an established securities market in the United States). Dividends of net investment income that are not designated as qualified dividend income and dividends of net short-term capital gains will be taxable to stockholders at ordinary income rates to the extent they are paid out of the Company's current or accumulated earnings and profits. Dividends paid by the Company with respect to a taxable year will qualify for the 70% dividends received deduction generally available to corporations to the extent of the amount of dividends received by the Company from certain domestic corporations for the taxable year, provided that certain holding period and other requirements are met at the Company and stockholder level. Stockholders will be advised annually as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of distributions made during the year, including the portion of dividends paid that qualify for the reduced tax rate and the dividends received deduction.

The Company intends to distribute to stockholders its net capital gain for each taxable year. If net capital gain is distributed and designated as a "capital gain dividend," it will be taxable to stockholders as long-term capital gain, regardless of the length of time the stockholder has held its shares or whether such gain was recognized by the Company prior to the date on which the stockholder acquired its shares. Capital gain of a noncorporate U.S. stockholder that is recognized before January 1, 2009 is generally taxed at a maximum rate of 15% where the property is held by the Company for more than one year. Capital gain of a corporate stockholder is taxed at the same rate as ordinary income. The Internal Revenue Service's position in a published revenue ruling indicates that the Company is required to designate distributions paid with respect to its Series B Preferred Stock and its common stock as consisting of a portion of each type of income distributed by the Company such that the portion of each type of income received by the holders of each class of stock will be equal to the portion of total Company dividends received by such class. Thus, the Company will designate dividends paid as capital gain dividends, dividends eligible for the dividends received deduction and dividends that qualify for treatment as qualified dividend income in a manner that allocates such dividends between the holders of the Series B Preferred Stock and the holders of common stock, in proportion to the total dividends paid to each such class during or with respect to the taxable year, or otherwise as required by applicable law.

Distributions on shares of the Series B Preferred Stock that do not constitute qualified dividend income, ordinary income dividends or capital gain dividends will be treated as a return of capital to the extent of (and in reduction of) the stockholder's tax basis in its shares; any excess will be treated as gain from the sale of its shares, as discussed below.

Prospective investors in the Series B Preferred Stock should be aware that distributions from the Company will, all other things being equal, have the effect of reducing the market value of the Series B Preferred Stock by the amount of the distribution. If the market value is reduced below a stockholder's cost, the distribution will nonetheless be taxable as described above, even if the distribution effectively represents a return of invested capital. Investors should consider the tax implications of buying shares just prior to a distribution, when the price of shares may reflect the amount of the forthcoming distribution.

SALE OR REDEMPTION OF SHARES

A stockholder will recognize gain or loss on the sale or redemption of shares of Series B Preferred Stock in an amount equal to the difference between the proceeds of the sale or redemption and the stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the shares. All or a portion of any loss so recognized may be disallowed if the stockholder acquires other substantially identical shares of the Company within a period of 61 days beginning 30 days before such disposition.

In general, any gain or loss arising from (or treated as arising from) the sale or redemption of shares of Series B Preferred Stock will be considered capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the shares were held for more than one year. However, any capital loss arising from the sale or redemption of shares held for six months or less will be treated as a long-term capital loss to the extent of the amount of capital gain dividends received on (or undistributed capital gains credited with respect to) such shares. Capital gain of a noncorporate U.S. stockholder that is recognized before January 1, 2009 is generally taxed at a maximum rate of 15% where the property is held by the stockholder for more than one year. Capital gain of a corporate stockholder is taxed at the same rate as ordinary income.

Under recently promulgated Treasury regulations, if a stockholder recognizes a loss on the disposition of shares of Series B Preferred Stock of $2 million or more for an individual stockholder or $10 million or more for a corporate stockholder in any single taxable year (or a greater loss over a combination of years), the stockholder may be required to file with the Internal Revenue Service a disclosure statement on Form 8886. The fact that a loss is reportable under these regulations does not affect the legal determination of whether the taxpayer's treatment of the loss is proper. Stockholders should consult their tax advisors to determine the applicability of these regulations in light of their individual circumstances.

BACKUP WITHHOLDING

The Company will be required in certain cases to backup withhold and remit to the U.S. Treasury a portion of qualified dividend income, ordinary income dividends, capital gain dividends and the proceeds of redemption of shares, paid to any stockholder (1) who has provided either an incorrect tax identification number or no number at all, (2) who is subject to backup withholding by the Internal Revenue Service for failure to report the receipt of interest or dividend income properly or (3) who has failed to certify to the Company that it is not subject to backup withholding or that it is a corporation or other "exempt recipient." Backup withholding is not an additional tax and any amounts withheld may be refunded or credited against a stockholder's federal income tax liability, provided the appropriate information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

FOREIGN STOCKHOLDERS

Taxation of a stockholder who, as to the United States, is a nonresident alien individual, foreign trust or estate, foreign corporation, or foreign partnership ("foreign stockholder") depends on whether the income from the Company is "effectively connected" with a U.S. trade or business carried on by such stockholder. If the income from the Company is not effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business carried on by a foreign stockholder, dividends paid to such foreign stockholder from net investment income or the Company's net short-term capital gain will be subject to U.S. withholding tax at the rate of 30% (or lower treaty rate) upon the gross amount of the dividend. Such a foreign stockholder would generally be exempt from U.S. federal income tax, including withholding tax, on gains realized on the sale of shares of Series B Preferred Stock, capital gain dividends and amounts retained by the Company that are designated as undistributed capital gains. If the income from the Company is effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business carried on by a foreign stockholder, then qualified dividend income, ordinary income dividends, capital gain dividends, undistributed capital gains credited to such stockholder and any gains realized upon the sale of shares of the Series B Preferred Stock will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at the graduated rates applicable to U.S. citizens or domestic corporations.

In the case of foreign non-corporate stockholders, the Company may be required to backup withhold U.S. federal income tax on distributions that are otherwise exempt from withholding tax (or taxable at a reduced treaty rate) unless such stockholders furnish the Company with proper notification of their foreign status.

The tax consequences to a foreign stockholder entitled to claim the benefits of an applicable tax treaty may be different from those described herein. Foreign stockholders are urged to consult their own tax advisers with respect to the particular tax consequences to them of an investment in the Series B Preferred Stock, the procedure for claiming the benefit of a lower treaty rate and the applicability of foreign taxes. Transfers by gift of shares of Series B Preferred Stock by an individual foreign stockholder will not be subject to U.S. federal gift tax, but the value of shares of Series B Preferred Stock held by such a stockholder at his death will generally be includible in his gross estate for U.S. federal estate tax purposes, subject to any applicable estate tax treaty.

GENERAL INFORMATION

BOOK-ENTRY-ONLY ISSUANCE

The Depository Trust Company ("DTC"), New York, New York, will act as securities depository for the shares of Series B Preferred Stock offered pursuant to the prospectus. The information in this section concerning DTC and DTC's book-entry system is based upon information obtained from DTC. Shares of the Series B Preferred Stock initially will be issued only as fully-registered securities registered in the name of Cede & Co. (DTC's partnership nominee) or such other name as may be requested by an authorized representative of DTC. One or more fully-registered security certificate or certificates initially will be issued, representing in the aggregate the total number of securities, and will be deposited with DTC.

DTC is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a "banking organization" within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a "clearing corporation" within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code and a "clearing agency" registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. DTC holds securities that its participants deposit with DTC ("direct participants"). DTC also facilitates the settlement among direct participants of securities transactions, such as transfers and pledges, in deposited securities through electronic computerized book-entry changes in direct participants' accounts, thereby eliminating the need for physical movement of securities certificates. Direct participants include securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations and certain other organizations. Access to the DTC system is also available to others known as indirect participants, such as securities brokers and dealers, banks and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a direct participant, either directly or indirectly. The rules applicable to DTC and its participants are on file with the Commission.

Purchases of Series B Preferred Stock within the DTC system must be made by or through direct participants, which will receive a credit for the shares of Series B Preferred Stock on DTC's records. The ownership interest of each actual purchaser of each share of Series B Preferred Stock, referred to as the beneficial owner, is in turn to be recorded on the direct or indirect participants' records. Beneficial owners will not receive written confirmation from DTC of their purchases, but beneficial owners are expected to receive written confirmations providing details of the transactions, as well as periodic statements of their holdings, from the direct or indirect participant through which the beneficial owners purchased their shares of Series B Preferred Stock. Transfers of ownership interests in shares of the Series B Preferred Stock are to be accomplished by entries made on the books of participants acting on behalf of beneficial owners. Beneficial owners will not receive certificates representing their ownership interests in shares of the Series B Preferred Stock, except as provided herein.

DTC has no knowledge of the actual beneficial owners of the shares of Series B Preferred Stock; DTC's records reflect only the identity of the direct participants to whose accounts such shares of Series B Preferred Stock are credited, which may or may not be the beneficial owners. The participants will remain responsible for keeping account of their holdings on behalf of their customers.

Conveyance of notices and other communications by DTC to direct participants, by direct participants to indirect participants, and by direct participants and indirect participants to beneficial owners will be governed by arrangements among them, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time.

Redemption notices shall be sent to Cede & Co. If less than all of the securities are being redeemed, DTC's practice is to determine by lot the amount of the interest of each direct participant.

Payments on the Series B Preferred Stock will be made to DTC. DTC's practice is to credit direct participants' accounts on the relevant payment date in accordance with their respective holdings shown on DTC's records unless DTC has reason to believe that it will not receive payments on such payment date. Payments by participants to beneficial owners will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices and will be the responsibility of such participant and not of DTC or the Company, subject to any statutory or regulatory requirements as may be in effect from time to time. Payment of dividends to DTC is the responsibility of the Company, disbursement of such payments to direct participants is the responsibility of DTC, and disbursement of such payments to the beneficial owners is the responsibility of direct and indirect participants. Furthermore, each beneficial owner must rely on the procedures of DTC to exercise any rights under the shares of Series B Preferred Stock.

DTC may discontinue providing its services as securities depository with respect to the Series B Preferred Stock at any time by giving reasonable notice to the Company. Under such circumstances, in the event that a successor securities depository is not obtained, certificates representing shares of the Series B Preferred Stock will be printed and delivered. The Company may decide to discontinue use of the system of book-entry transfers through DTC (or a successor securities depository). In that event, Series B Preferred Stock certificates will be printed and delivered.

COUNSEL AND INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Sullivan & Cromwell LLP, 125 Broad Street, New York, New York 10004, is counsel to the Company in connection with the offering of the Series B Preferred Stock.

Ernst & Young LLP, 5 Times Square, New York, New York 10036, has been selected as independent auditors for the Company.

GLOSSARY

"Basic Maintenance Amount" means, as of any valuation date, the dollar amount equal to (i) the sum of (A) the product of the number of shares of Series B Preferred Stock outstanding on such valuation date multiplied by the liquidation preference; (B) to the extent not included in (A), the aggregate amount of cash dividends (whether or not earned or declared) that will have accumulated for each outstanding share of Series B Preferred Stock from the most recent dividend payment date to which dividends have been paid or duly provided for (or, in the event the Basic Maintenance Amount is calculated on a date prior to the initial dividend payment date with respect to the Series B Preferred Stock, then from the date of original issue) through the valuation date plus all dividends to accumulate on the Series B Preferred Stock then outstanding during the 70 days following such valuation date; (C) the Company's other liabilities due and payable as of such valuation date (except that dividends and other distributions payable by the Company by the issuance of common stock will not be included as a liability) and such liabilities projected to become due and payable by the Company during the 90 days following such valuation date (excluding liabilities for investments to be purchased and for dividends and other distributions not declared as of such valuation date); (D) any current liabilities of the Company as of such valuation date to the extent not reflected in any of (i)(A) through (i)(C) (including, without limitation, and immediately upon determination, any amounts due and payable by the Company pursuant to reverse repurchase agreements and any payables for assets purchased as of such valuation date) less (ii) (A) the Discounted Value of any of the Company's assets and/or (B) the face value of any of the Company's assets if, in the case of both (ii) (A) and (ii) (B), such assets are either cash or securities which mature prior to or on the date of redemption or repurchase of Series B Preferred Stock or payment of another liability and are either U.S. Government Securities, U.S. Treasury Strips or securities which have a rating assigned by Moody's of at least Aaa, P-1, VMIG-1 or MIG-1 or by S&P of at least AAA, SP-1+ or A-1+, in both cases irrevocably held by the Company's custodian bank in a segregated account or deposited by the Company with the dividend-paying agent for the payment of the amounts needed to redeem or repurchase Series B Preferred Stock subject to redemption or repurchase or any of (i) (B) through (i) (D) and provided that in the event the Company has repurchased Series B Preferred Stock at a price of less than the liquidation preference thereof and irrevocably segregated or deposited assets as described above with its custodian bank or the dividend-paying agent for the payment of the repurchase price the Company may deduct 100% of the liquidation preference of such Series B Preferred Stock to be repurchased from (i) above.

"Discounted Value" means the quotient of (A) in the case of non-convertible fixed income securities, the lower of the principal amount and the market value thereof or (B) in the case of any other Moody's Eligible Assets, the market value thereof, divided by the applicable Moody's Discount Factor.

"Fitch" means Fitch, Inc., or its successor.

"Moody's" means Moody's Investors Service, Inc., or its successor.

"Moody's Discount Factor" means, for purposes of determining the Discounted Value of any Moody's Eligible Asset, the percentage determined as follows. The Moody's Discount Factor for any Moody's Eligible Asset other than the securities set forth below will be the percentage provided in writing by Moody's.

B-18

i. Corporate debt securities (non-convertible): The percentage determined by reference to the rating on such asset with reference to the remaining term to maturity of such asset, in accordance with the table set forth below.

(1) Unless conclusions regarding liquidity risk as well as estimates of both the probability and severity of default for a Company asset can be derived from other sources as well as combined with a number of sources, unrated fixed-income and convertible securities, which are securities that are not rated by any of Moody's, S&P or Fitch, are limited to 10% of discounted Moody's Eligible Assets. If a security is either rated below B or not rated by any of Moody's, S&P or Fitch, the Company will use the applicable percentage set forth in the row of the table entitled "Unrated." Upon notice by Moody's, ratings assigned by S&P or Fitch may be subject to adjustments in particular categories of credits for which the S&P and/or Fitch rating does not seem to approximate a Moody's rating equivalent.

The Moody's Discount Factors presented in the immediately preceding table will also apply to corporate debt securities that do not pay interest in U.S. dollars or euros, provided that the Moody's Discount Factor determined from the table shall be multiplied by a factor of 110% for purposes of calculating the Discounted Value of such securities.

ii. Preferred stock: Eligible preferred stock will be from issuers possessing a senior unsecured rating that is Baa or higher:

If a security is either rated below B or not rated by any of Moody's, S&P or Fitch, the Company will use the applicable percentage set forth in the row of the table entitled "Unrated." Upon notice by Moody's, ratings assigned by S&P or Fitch may be subject to adjustments in particular categories of credits for which the S&P and/or Fitch rating does not seem to approximate a Moody's rating equivalent.

Upon conversion to common stock, the Moody's Discount Factors applicable to common stock will apply.

v. Short-term instruments: The Moody's Discount Factor applied to short-term portfolio securities, including without limitation corporate debt securities, Short Term Money Market Instruments and municipal debt obligations, will be (A) 100%, so long as such portfolio securities mature or have a demand feature at par exercisable within the Moody's Exposure Period; (B) 115%, so long as such portfolio securities do not mature within the Moody's Exposure Period or have a demand feature at par not exercisable within the Moody's Exposure Period; and (C) 125%, if such securities are not rated by Moody's, so long as such portfolio securities are rated at least A-1+/AA or SP-1+/AA by S&P and mature or have a demand feature at par exercisable within the Moody's Exposure Period. A Moody's Discount Factor of 100% will be applied to cash.

- (4) Municipal debt obligations not rated by Moody's but rated SP-1+ by S&P, which do not mature or have a demand feature at par exercisable in 30 days and which do not have a long-term rating.
- (5) Municipal debt obligations rated less than Baa3 or not rated by Moody's and less than BBB or not rated by S&P, not to exceed 10% of Moody's Eligible Assets.

xi. Structured Notes: The Moody's Discount Factor applied to Structured Notes will be (A) in the case of a corporate issuer, the Moody's Discount Factor determined in accordance with paragraph (i) under this definition, whereby the rating on the issuer of the structured note will be the rating on the structured note for purposes of determining the Moody's Discount Factor in the table in paragraph (i); and (B) in the case of an issuer that is the U.S. government or an agency or instrumentality thereof, the Moody's Discount Factor determined in accordance with paragraph (iii) under this definition.

"Moody's Eligible Assets" means:

- i. Cash (including interest and dividends due on assets rated (A) Baa3 or higher by Moody's if the payment date is within five business days of the valuation date, (B) A2 or higher if the payment date is within thirty days of the valuation date, and (C) A1 or higher if the payment date is within the Moody's Exposure Period) and receivables for Moody's Eligible Assets sold if the receivable is due within five business days of the valuation date, and if the trades which generated such receivables are (A) settled through clearing house firms or (B) (1) with counterparties having a Moody's long-term debt rating of at least Baa3 or (2) with counterparties having a Moody's Short Term Money Market Instrument rating of at least P-1;

ii. Short-Term Money Market Instruments so long as (A) such securities are rated at least P-1, (B) in the case of demand deposits, time deposits and overnight funds, the supporting entity is rated at least A2, or (C) in all other cases, the supporting entity (1) is rated A2 and the security matures within one month, (2) is rated A1 and the security matures within three months or (3) is rated at least Aa3 and the security matures within six months; provided, however, that for purposes of this definition, such instruments (other than commercial paper rated by S&P and not rated by Moody's) need not meet any otherwise applicable S&P rating criteria;

iii. U.S. Government Securities and U.S. Treasury Strips;

iv. Rule 144A Securities;

v. Senior loans and other bank loans approved by Moody's;

vi. Corporate debt securities if (A) such securities are rated Caa or higher by Moody's; (B) such securities provide for the periodic payment of interest in cash in U.S. dollars or euros, except that such securities that do not pay interest in U.S. dollars or euros shall be considered Moody's Eligible Assets if they are rated by Moody's or S&P; (C) for securities which provide for conversion or exchange into equity capital at some time over their lives, the issuer must be rated at least B3 by Moody's and the discount factor will be 250%; (D) for debt securities rated Bal and below, no more than 10% of the original amount of such issue may constitute Moody's Eligible Assets; (E) such securities have been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or are restricted as to resale under federal securities laws but are eligible for resale pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, as determined by the Company's portfolio manager acting pursuant to procedures approved by the Board of Directors, except that such securities that are not subject to U.S. federal securities laws shall be considered Moody's Eligible Assets if they are publicly traded; and (F) such securities are not subject to extended settlement.

Notwithstanding the foregoing limitations, (x) corporate debt securities not rated at least Caa by Moody's or not rated by Moody's shall be considered to be Moody's Eligible Assets only to the extent the market value of such corporate debt securities does not exceed 10% of the aggregate market value of all Moody's Eligible Assets; provided, however, that if the market value of such corporate debt securities exceeds 10% of the aggregate market value of all Moody's Eligible Assets, a portion of such corporate debt securities (selected by the Company) shall not be considered Moody's Eligible Assets, so that the market value of such corporate debt securities (excluding such portion) does not exceed 10% of the aggregate market value of all Moody's Eligible Assets; and (y) corporate debt securities rated by neither Moody's nor S&P shall be considered to be Moody's Eligible Assets only to the extent such securities are issued by entities which (i) have not filed for bankruptcy within the past three years, (ii) are current on all principal and interest in their fixed income obligations, (iii) are current on all preferred stock dividends, and (iv) possess a current, unqualified auditor's report without qualified, explanatory language;

vii. Preferred stocks if (A) dividends on such preferred stock are cumulative, (B) such securities provide for the periodic payment of dividends thereon in cash in U.S. dollars or euros and do not provide for conversion or exchange into, or have warrants attached entitling the holder to receive, equity capital at any time over the respective lives of such securities, (C) the issuer of such a preferred stock has common stock listed on either the New York Stock Exchange or the American Stock Exchange, (D) the issuer of such a preferred stock has a senior debt rating from Moody's of Baa1 or higher or a preferred stock rating from Moody's of Baa3 or higher and (E) such preferred stock has paid consistent cash dividends in U.S. dollars or euros over the last three years or has a minimum rating of A1 (if the issuer of such preferred stock has other preferred issues outstanding that have been paying dividends consistently for the last three years, then a preferred stock without such a dividend history would also be eligible). In addition, the preferred stocks must have the following diversification requirements: (X) the preferred stock issue must be greater than $50 million and (Y) the minimum holding by the Company of each issue of preferred stock is $500,000 and the maximum holding of preferred stock of each issue is $5 million. In addition, preferred stocks issued by transportation companies will not be considered Moody's Eligible Assets; viii. Common stocks (including American Depository Receipts "ADRs") (A) (1) which are traded on the New York Stock Exchange, the American Stock Exchange or NASDAQ System, (2) which, if cash dividend paying, (x) pay cash dividends in U.S. dollars or euros and (y) paid consistent cash dividends for the past 36 months or must not have terminated dividend payments within the last 12 months; provided that if there is less than a three year operating history, the issuer must have a minimum senior debt rating of A by Moody's or the equivalent by S&P or Fitch, (3) which have a market capitalization greater than $500 million; and (B) which are ADR securities that are either (i) sponsored ADR programs or (2) Level II or Level III ADRs.

In addition, common stocks are subject to the following diversification requirements in order to be included in Moody's Eligible Assets:

MAXIMUM SINGLE	MAXIMUM SINGLE	INDUSTRY CATEGORY
ISSUER (%) (1)	INDUSTRY (%) (1)
STATE (%) (1)	-----	--
-----	-----	----
Utility.....
	4 50 7 (2)
Other.....

(1) Percentages represent both a portion of the aggregate Market Value and the number of outstanding shares of the common stock portfolio.

(2) Utility companies operating in more than one state should be diversified according to the state of incorporation.

ix. Asset-backed and mortgage-backed securities:

(A) Asset-backed securities if (1) such securities are rated at least Aa3 by Moody's or at least AA by S&P, (2) the securities are part of an issue that is $250 million or greater, or the issuer of such securities has a total of $500 million or greater of asset-backed securities outstanding at the time of purchase of the securities by the Company and (3) the expected average life of the securities is not greater than 4 years;

(B) Collateralized mortgage obligations ("CMOs"), including CMOs with interest rates that float at a multiple of the change in the underlying index according to a pre-set formula, provided that any CMO held by the Company (1) has been rated Aaa by Moody's or AAA by S&P, (2) does not have a coupon which floats inversely, (3) is not portioned as an interest-only or principal-only strip and (4) is part of an issuance that had an original issue size of at least $100 million;

(C) Planned amortization class bonds ("PACs") and targeted amortization class bonds ("TACs") provided that such PACs or TACs are (1) backed by certificates of either the Federal National Mortgage Association ("FNMA"), the Government National Mortgage Association ("GNMA") or the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation ("FHLMC") representing ownership in single-family first lien mortgage loans with original terms of 30 years, (2) part of an issuance that had an original issue size of at least $10 million, (3) part of PAC or TAC classes that have payment priority over other PAC or TAC classes, (4) if TACs, TACs that do not support PAC classes, and (5) if TACs, not considered reverse TACs (i.e., do not protect against extension risk);

B-24

(D) Consolidated senior debt obligations of Federal Home Loan Banks ("FHLBs"), senior long-term debt of the FNMA, and consolidated systemwide bonds and FCS Financial Assistance Corporation Bonds of Federal Farm Credit Banks ("FFCBs") (collectively, "FHLB, FNMA and FFCB Debentures"), provided that such FHLB, FNMA and FFCB Debentures are (1) direct issuance corporate debt rated Aaa by Moody's, (2) senior debt obligations backed by the FHLBs, FFCBs or FNMA, (3) part of an issue entirely denominated in U.S. dollars and (4) not callable or exchangeable debt issues;

(E) Mortgage pass-throughs rated at least Aa by Moody's and pass-throughs issued prior to 1987 (if rated AA by S&P and based on fixed-rate mortgage loans) by Travelers Mortgage Services, Citicorp Homeowners, Citibank, N.A., Sears Mortgage Security or RFC -- Salomon Brothers Mortgage Securities, Inc., provided that (1) certificates must evidence a proportional, undivided interest in specified pools of fixed or adjustable rate mortgage loans, secured by a valid first lien, on one- to four-family residential properties and (2) the securities are publicly registered (not issued by FNMA, GNMA or FHLMC);

(F) Private-placement mortgage pass-throughs provided that (1) certificates represent a proportional undivided interest in specified pools of fixed-rate mortgage loans, secured by a valid first lien, on one- to four-family residential properties, (2) documentation is held by a trustee or independent custodian, (3) pools of mortgage loans are serviced by servicers that have been approved by FNMA or FHLMC and funds shall be advanced to meet deficiencies to the extent provided in the pooling and servicing agreements creating such certificates, and (4) pools have been rated Aa or better by Moody's; and

(G) Whole loans (e.g., direct investments in mortgages) provided that (1) at least 65% of such loans (a) have seasoning of no less than 6 months, (b) are secured by single-family detached residences, (c) are owner-occupied primary residences, (d) are secured by a first-lien, fully-documented mortgage, (e) are neither currently delinquent (30 days or more) nor delinquent during the preceding year, (f) have loan-to-value ratios of 80% or below, (g) carry normal hazard insurance and title insurance, as well as special hazard insurance, if applicable, (h) have original terms to maturity not greater than 30 years, with at least one year remaining to maturity, (i) have a minimum of $10,000 remaining principal balance, (j) for loans underwritten after January 1, 1978, FNMA and/or FHLMC forms are used for fixed-rate loans, and (k) such loans are whole loans and not participations; (2) for loans that do not satisfy the requirements set forth in the foregoing clause (1), (a) non-owner occupied properties represent no greater than 15% of the aggregate of either the adjustable-rate pool or the fixed-rate pool, (b) multi-family properties (those with five or more units) represent no greater than 15% of the aggregate of either the adjustable-rate pool or the fixed-rate pool, (c) condominiums represent no greater than 10% of the aggregate of either the adjustable-rate pool or the fixed-rate pool, and any condominium project must be 80% occupied at the time the loan is originated, (d) properties with loan-to-value ratios exceeding 80% represent no greater than 25% of the aggregate of either the adjustable-rate pool or the fixed-rate pool and the portion of the mortgage on any such property that exceeds a loan-to-value ratio of 80% is insured with Primary Mortgage Insurance from an insurer rated at least Baa3 by Moody's and (e) loan balances in excess of the current FHLMC limit plus $75,000 represent no greater than 25% of the aggregate of either the adjustable-rate pool or the fixed-rate pool, loan balances in excess of $350,000 represent no greater than 10% of the aggregate of either the adjustable-rate pool or the fixed-rate pool, and loan balances in excess of $1,000,000 represent no greater than 5% of the aggregate of either the adjustable-rate pool or the fixed-rate pool; (3) no greater than 5% of the pool of loans is concentrated in any one zip code; (4) the pool of loans contains at least 100 loans or $2 million in loans per servicer; (5) for adjustable-rate mortgages ("ARMs"), (a) any ARM is indexed to the National Cost of Funds index, the 11th District Cost of Funds index, the 1-year Treasury or the 6-month Treasury, (b) the margin over the given index is between 0.15% and 0.25% for either cost-of-funds index and between 0.175% and 0.325% for Treasuries, (c) the maximum yearly interest rate increase is 2%, (d) the maximum life-time interest rate increase is 6.25% and (e) ARMs may include Federal Housing Administration and Department of Veterans Affairs loans; (6) for "teaser" loans, (a) the initial discount from the current ARM market rate is no greater than 2%, (b) the loan is underwritten at the market rate for ARMs, not the "teaser" rate, and (c) the loan is seasoned six months beyond the "teaser" period.

x. Any municipal debt obligation that (A) pays interest in cash, (B) does not have a Moody's rating, as applicable, suspended by Moody's, and (C) is part of an issue of municipal debt obligations of at least $5,000,000, except for municipal debt obligations rated below A by Moody's, in which case the minimum issue size is $10,000,000;

xi. Structured Notes and traded custody receipts representing direct ownership in a portfolio of underlying securities (TRACERS); and

xii. Financial contracts, as such term is defined in Section 3(c)(2)(B)(ii) of the 1940 Act, not otherwise provided for in this definition but only upon receipt by the Company of a letter from Moody's specifying any conditions on including such financial contract in Moody's Eligible Assets and assuring the Company that including such financial contract in the manner so specified would not affect the credit rating assigned by Moody's to the Series B Preferred Stock.

In addition, portfolio holdings as described below must be within the following diversification and issue size requirements in order to be included in Moody's Eligible Assets:

MAXIMUM SINGLE ISSUE SIZE INDUSTRY(3), (4)	MAXIMUM SINGLE RATINGS(1)	MINIMUM ISSUER(2), (3) ($ IN MILLION) (5)	MINIMUM ---
Aaa.....	100%	100%	$100

Ba.....	4	12	50(6) B1-
B2.....	8	50(6)	B3 or 3
below.....		50(6)	2 5

(1) Refers to the preferred stock and senior debt rating of the portfolio holding.

(2) Companies subject to common ownership of 25% or more are considered as one issuer.

(3) Percentages represent a portion of the aggregate market value of corporate debt securities.

(4) Industries are determined according to Moody's Industry Classifications, as defined herein.

(5) Except for preferred stock, which has a minimum issue size of $50 million.

(6) Portfolio holdings from issues ranging from $50 million to $100 million are limited to 20% of the Company's total assets.

Where the Company sells an asset and agrees to repurchase such asset in the future, the Discounted Value of such asset will constitute a Moody's Eligible Asset and the amount the Company is required to pay upon repurchase of such asset will count as a liability for the purposes of the Basic Maintenance Amount. Where the Company purchases an asset and agrees to sell it to a third party in the future, cash receivable by the Company thereby will constitute a Moody's Eligible Asset if the long-term debt of such other party is rated at least A2 by Moody's and such agreement has a term of 30 days or less; otherwise the Discounted Value of such purchased asset will constitute a Moody's Eligible Asset. For the purposes of calculation of Moody's Eligible Assets, portfolio securities which have been called for redemption by the issuer thereof shall be valued at the lower of market value or the call price of such portfolio securities.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, an asset will not be considered a Moody's Eligible Asset to the extent that it (i) has been irrevocably deposited for the payment of (i) (A) through (i) (E) under the definition of Basic Maintenance Amount or to the extent it is subject to any liens, except for (A) liens which are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and which Moody's has indicated to the Company will not affect the status of such asset as a Moody's Eligible Asset, (B) liens for taxes that are not then due and payable or that can be paid thereafter without penalty, (C) liens to secure payment for services rendered or cash advanced to the Company by its custodian, transfer agent or registrar and (D) liens arising by virtue of any repurchase agreement, or (ii) has been segregated against obligations of the Company in connection with an outstanding derivative transaction.

"Moody's Exposure Period" means the period commencing on a given valuation date and ending 49 days thereafter.

"Moody's Industry Classification" means, for the purposes of determining Moody's Eligible Assets, each of the following industry classifications (or such other classifications as Moody's may from time to time approve for application to the Preferred Shares):

1. Aerospace and Defense: Major Contractor, Subsystems, Research, Aircraft Manufacturing, Arms, Ammunition
2. Automobile: Automobile Equipment, Auto-Manufacturing, Auto Parts Manufacturing, Personal Use Trailers, Motor Homes, Dealers

The Company will use its discretion in determining which industry classification is applicable to a particular investment in consultation with its independent accountants and Moody's, to the extent the Company considers necessary.

"Moody's Loan Category" means the following five categories (and, for purposes of this categorization, the market value of a Moody's Eligible Asset trading at par is equal to $1.00):

(i) "Moody's Loan Category A" means performing senior loans which have a market value or an approved price greater than or equal to $0.90.

(ii) "Moody's Loan Category B" means: (A) performing senior loans which have a market value or an approved price of greater than or equal to $0.80 but less than $0.90; and (B) non-performing senior loans which have a market value or an approved price greater than or equal to $0.85.

(iii) "Moody's Loan Category C" means: (A) performing senior loans which have a market value or an approved price of greater than or equal to $0.70 but less than $0.80; and (B) non-performing senior loans which have a market value or an approved price of greater than or equal to $0.75 but less than $0.85.

(iv) "Moody's Loan Category D" means senior loans which have a market value or an approved price less than $0.75.

B-28

(v) "Moody's Loan Category E" means non-senior loans which have a market value or an approved price.

Notwithstanding any other provision contained above, for purposes of determining whether a Moody's Eligible Asset falls within a specific Moody's Loan Category, to the extent that any Moody's Eligible Asset would fall in more than one of the Moody's Loan Categories, such Moody's Eligible Asset shall be deemed to fall into the Moody's Loan Category with the lowest applicable Moody's Discount Factor.

"Portfolio Calculation" means the aggregate Discounted Value of all of Moody's Eligible Assets.

"Rule 144A Securities" means securities which are restricted to resale under federal securities laws but are eligible for resale pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended as determined by the Company's portfolio manager.

"S&P" means Standard & Poor's Ratings Services, a division of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc., a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware, its successors and their assigns, and if such corporation shall be dissolved or liquidated or shall no longer perform the functions of a securities rating agency, "S&P" shall be deemed to refer to any other nationally recognized securities rating agency designated by the Company.

"Short-Term Money Market Instruments" means the following types of instruments if, on the date of purchase or other acquisition thereof by the Company (or, in the case of an instrument specified by clauses (i) and (ii) below, on the valuation date), the remaining terms to maturity thereof are not in excess of 90 days:

(i) U.S. Government Securities;

(ii) commercial paper that is rated at the time of purchase or acquisition and the valuation date at least P-1 by Moody's and is issued by an issuer (or guaranteed or supported by a person or entity other than the issuer) whose long-term unsecured debt obligations are rated at least Aa by Moody's;

(iii) demand or time deposits in or certificates of deposit of or banker's acceptances issued by (A) a depository institution or trust company incorporated under the laws of the United States of America or any state thereof or the District of Columbia or (B) a United States branch office or agency of a foreign depository institution (provided that such branch office or agency is subject to banking regulation under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia) if, in each case, the commercial paper, if any, and the long-term unsecured debt obligations (other than such obligations the ratings of which are based on the credit of a person or entity other than such depository institution or trust company) of such depository institution or trust company at the time of purchase or acquisition and the valuation date, have (1) credit ratings from Moody's of at least P-1 in the case of commercial paper and (2) credit ratings from Moody's of at least Aa in the case of long-term unsecured debt obligations; provided, however, that in the case of any such investment that matures in no more than one business day from the date of purchase or other acquisition by the Company, all of the foregoing requirements will be applicable except that the required long-term unsecured debt credit rating of such depository institution or trust company from Moody's will be at least A2; and provided, further, however, that the foregoing credit rating requirements will be deemed to be met with respect to a depository institution or trust company if (1) such depository institution or trust company is the principal depository institution in a holding company system, (2) the commercial paper, if any, of such depository institution or trust company is not rated below P-1 by Moody's and (3) the holding company will meet all of the foregoing credit rating requirements (including the preceding proviso in the case of investments that mature in no more than one business day from the date of purchase or other acquisition by the Company);

(iv) repurchase obligations with respect to any U.S. Government Securities entered into with a depository institution, trust company or securities dealer (acting as principal) which is rated (A) at least Aa3 if the maturity is three months or less, (B) at least A1 if the maturity is two months or less and (C) at least A2 if the maturity is one month or less; and

(v) Eurodollar demand or time deposits in, or certificates of deposit of, the head office or the London branch office of a depository institution or trust company meeting the credit rating requirements of commercial paper and long-term unsecured debt obligations specified in clause (iii) above, provided that the interest receivable by the Company will be payable in U.S. dollars and will not be subject to any withholding or similar taxes.

"Structured Notes" means privately negotiated debt obligations where the principal and/or interest is determined by reference to the performance of a benchmark asset, market or interest rate (an "embedded index"), such as selected securities, an index of securities or specified interest rates, or the differential performance of two assets or markets. Structured Notes may be issued by corporations, including banks, as well as by governmental agencies. Structured Notes frequently are assembled in the form of medium-term notes, but a variety of forms are available and may be used in particular circumstances. The terms of such Structured Notes normally provide that their principal and/or interest payments are to be adjusted upwards or downwards (but ordinarily not below zero) to reflect changes in the embedded index while Structured Notes are outstanding.

"U.S. Government Securities" means direct obligations of the United States or of its agencies or instrumentalities that are entitled to the full faith and credit of the United States and that, other than United States Treasury Bills, provide for the periodic payment of interest and the full payment of principal at maturity or call for redemption.

"U.S. Treasury Strips" means securities based on U.S. Treasury Securities created through the Separate Trading of Registered Interest and Principal of Securities program.
